The fish he caught—and the stations he got!

Back from a fishing trip with a bag full of fish—and stories. The ten pounder. The fighting bass that rocked the boat. And at night, the distant stations picked up at a turn of the knob. Music from everywhere. In tune with solitude, or with the social mood of story-swapping confab.

Every fishing and hunting party that comes to lodge or club wants game a-plenty—and a Radiola. One of the most successful of the new RCA sets is Radiola Super-Heterodyne. A sturdily built Radiola, and a big performer. For distance reception, supreme selectivity, simple operation, clear, true reproduction, this new circuit will achieve new records.

At the shooting box or lakeside camp Radiola Super-Heterodyne will supply the things you want from the big cities—the music and fun for the evening's entertainment.

U. S. FLYERS GIRDLING GLOBE MAKE HAIPHONG

Aviators Make Record Hop from Hong Kong Against Adverse Winds

LT. SMITH SENDS RADIO

THE American Army around-the-world flyers arrived safely at Haiphong, French Indo-China, from Hong Kong, China, on Tuesday afternoon, after covering 500 miles in six hours and twenty-eight minutes, according to latest advices.

After visiting in quaint Indo-China for a few days the aviators will hop off for India, via Siam.

Lt. Lowell H. Smith, A.S., who is the flight commander, vice Maj. Frederick L. Martin, who relinquished command voluntarily on June 3, following his rescue from his wrecked plane, sent the following message via Fort Douglas and the U.S.S. Tracy a few days ago:

"Arrived Amoy 4:30 with 7 hours and 25 minutes flying time. Made half-way stop, fuel with Navy assistance. Plan Hong Kong 8th. Smith."

The American aviators left Kagoshima, Japan, over a week ago and crossed the Eastern Sea in a dense fog, arriving at Shanghai several hours late.

They hopped off as soon as weather conditions permitted and made Amoy, where they stopped to refuel.

Hong Kong, along the Chinese coast, was the next "leg" of the journey, Lt. Smith sending the radio just before the squadron's departure from Amoy.

At all points the flyers received a fervent welcome from the inhabitants, particularly from the American colonies in Shanghai and Hong Kong.

Despite strong southwesterly winds the world flight squadron left Hong Kong on Tuesday morning and arrived at Haiphong after a hard trip in the afternoon.

All the flyers and their machines are in good shape, according to report.

BATTLE PRACTICE FOR RESERVE OFFICERS

BATTLE practice with big guns will be held at Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook, on June 21, when the southern defenses of New York harbor will be tested for the benefit of Coast Artillery Reserve officers. Long-range 12-inch cannon will hurl projectiles at targets ten miles away, while 6-inch rapid-fire guns will rake the channel mine fields, and 155-mm. weapons which were anathema to the Germans in France, will demonstrate the reception a hostile landing party would receive.

The program will open with talks by Col. G. G. Heiner, commanding the 2d Coast Artillery District; Col. E. B. Martindale, jr., commanding coast defenses of Sandy Hook, and the operations officer, who will discuss the defense problem.

Mineplanter Ord will leave pier A, North river, at 9:30 Saturday morning for Fort Hancock, stopping en route to pick up passengers at Fort Hamilton. The Johnson will leave the fort that afternoon at 5 o'clock.

BRIG. GEN. MALIN CRAIG NOMINATED

TO BE NEW CHIEF OF CAVALRY BRANCH

BRIG. GEN. MALIN CRAIG, nominated in the Senate June 6, to be Chief of Cavalry with the rank of major general, effective upon the retirement of Maj. Gen. Willard E. Holbrook, the present Chief of Cavalry, on July 23, 1924, was born in St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 5, 1875, and is a graduate of the U.S.M.A., class of 1904. He was honor graduate, Infantry and Cavalry School, 1904; graduate Staff College, 1905, and War College, 1910 and 1920. He served on the General Staff, April 10 to September, 1912, and June to August, 1917; participated in the Santiago campaign, 1898, China Relief Expedition, 1900, and Philippine Insurrection, 1900-1902.

During the World War Gen. Craig was on duty in The Adjutant General's office and office of the Chief of Staff, Washington, D.C., June to August, 1917, and with the 41st Division as chief of staff in the United States and France until January, 1918, with the rank of colonel. He was then chief of staff, 1st Army Corps, serving in this capacity during the Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives; chief of staff, 3d Army, during the march into and occupation of Germany, and commanding 166th Infantry Brigade with the rank of brigadier general.

He was made a brigadier general, Regular Army, July 3, 1920, and has since commanded the Cavalry School, Fort Riley, and at present is stationed at Manila, P.I.

He was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal: "For exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. He served in turn as chief of staff of a division, a corps, and an Army, in each of which capacities he exhibited great ability."

CONGRESS PASSES TOTAL OF 22 AMENDMENTS AIDING NAT. GUARD

WITH the adjournment of the first session of the 68th Congress on June 7 a total of twenty-two amendments to laws affecting the National Guard were passed and approved by the President. Included in these amendments are those pertaining to the various pay of officers and men in National Guard organizations, a provision for "split drills," commissions in the Army of the United States, provision for reenlistments in the National Guard, rental allowance, longevity pay, and a number of other amendments of lesser importance.

As the appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1925 passed both the Senate and House, it did not contain the prohibition which now exists for the purchase of certain Signal and Engineer equipment. With this restriction removed, within the limitations of the appropriations, many of the existing deficiencies in these classes of equipment will be made up during 1924-25.

Shortly after July it is hoped to issue a set of printed tables of organization for National Guard units (based on the Regular Army tables as a model). These will furnish to the National Guard unit commander a composition for each strength that he may have enrolled between the recognition figure and the peace figure for his organization. Under these tables the maintenance strength of units that have a peace strength larger than 65 will be fixed at 65, and the principle will be abandoned under which National Guard organizations attaining 80 per cent. or over of the prescribed peace strength can adopt the Regular Army composition of non-commissioned officers and specialists. In the new tables the prescribed non-coms, and specialists (that do not appear in the recognition setup) will be distributed at various "stages" between recognition strength and peace strength.

The work of revising the National Guard regulations is progressing satisfactorily, and it is believed that the work will be completed some time in the fall. It will not only be a great improvement over the last regulations, but it will contain all instructions of a permanent nature issued to date from the Militia Bureau of the War Department in the form of changes to National Guard regulations, training circulars, circular letters, circulars, and mimeographed letters.

Following are the amendments as outlined above:

a. To provide for condemnation by inspection by officers of the Regular Army of property issued to the National Guard, which has become unserviceable through fair wear and tear in service. This provides an optional method of securing relief for this class of property, i.e., by survey or by inspection.

b. To provide for "split" drills. The proposed regulations to make this provision effective are shown in a letter of June 6, sent to the adjutants general of the states.

c. To provide army drill pay for captains, lieutenants and warrant officers belonging to organizations for not exceeding eight drills in any one calendar month and not exceeding sixty in one year. This places these officers and warrant officers on the same basis as enlisted men in this particular.

d. To eliminate the percentage requirements now prescribed to qualify captains and lieutenants belonging to organizations for army drill pay, and the substitution thereof of requirements to be prescribed in regulations by the Secretary of War.

e. To authorize administrative pay for officers commanding organizations less than a brigade and having administrative functions connected therewith, whether or not such organizations belong to the organizations they command, and providing for the division of such officers into classes by the Secretary of War, and the fixing by him, on a sliding scale, of the amount of administrative pay (not exceeding $240 a year) for the officers in each class.

f. To authorize pay, for not more than six months, for members of the National Guard while undergoing medical and hospital treatment for injuries incurred in line of duty at field training, service schools and drills involving flying; and burial expenses for those dying while receiving such hospital treatment.

g. To provide for the appointment of agent officers by property and disbursing officers for the purpose of disbursing funds.

h. To provide specialists' pay for enlisted men while at field training and service schools, and to validate payments heretofore made therefor.

i. To validate payments made to warrant officers for drills attended since July 1, 1922, and to provide for the payment of army drill pay, for the period between that date and Oct. 30, 1923, to warrant officers who attended drills and who have not been paid.

j. To validate payments made for army drill pay for "split" drills held under the provisions of Para. 928 (k) and 930 (a), National Guard Regulations, before the latter were rescinded, and to authorize payment of army drill pay to captains, lieutenants and enlisted

SERVICES SUPPORTED IN G. O. P. PLATFORM

Declares That the Army Must Not Be Weakened
Any Further

TO MAINTAIN THE NAVY

AMONG the planks in the Republican platform announced at the convention at Cleveland, Ohio, June 11, were the following, relative to military and naval matters:

"There must be no further weakening of our Regular Army, and we advocate appropriations sufficient to provide for the training of all members of the National Guard, the citizens' military training camps and the Reserves who may offer themselves for service. We pledge ourselves to round out and maintain the Navy to the full strength provided the United States by the letter and spirit of the limitation of armament conference."

"We believe that in time of war the nation should draft for its defense not only its citizens, but also every resource which may contribute to success. The country demands that should the United States ever again be called upon to defend itself by arms the President be empowered to draft such material resources and such service as may be required, and to stabilize the prices of services and essential commodities, whether used in actual warfare or private activities."

"The Republican Party stands for a strong and permanent merchant marine built by Americans, owned by Americans and manned by Americans, to secure the necessary contact with world markets for our surplus agricultural products and manufactures; to protect our shippers and importers from exorbitant ocean freight rates and to become a powerful arm of our national defense."

"We reaffirm the admiration and gratitude which we feel for soldiers and sailors, and the Republican Party pledges a continually and increasing solicitude for all those suffering any disability as a result of service to the United States in time of war. No country and no administration has ever shown a more generous disposition in the care of its disabled, or more thoughtful consideration in providing a sound administration for the solution of the many problems involved in making intended benefits fully, directly and promptly available to the veterans."

"The confusion, inefficiency and maladministration existing heretofore since the establishment of this Government agency has been cured and plans are being actively made looking to a further improvement in the operation of the bureau by the passage of new legislation. The basic statute has been so liberalized as to bring within its terms 100,000 additional beneficiaries."

"The privilege of hospitalization in Government hospitals, as recommended by President Coolidge, has been granted to all veterans, irrespective of the origin of disability, and over $50,000,000 has been appropriated for hospital construction, which will provide sufficient beds to care for all. Appropriations totaling over one billion one hundred million dollars, made by the Republican Congress for the care of the disabled, evidences the unmistakable purpose of the Government not to consider costs when the welfare of these men is at stake. No legislation for the benefit of the disabled soldier proposed during the last four years by veterans organizations has failed to receive consideration."

WEST POINT CLASS OF 406 MEN IS GRADUATED

Largest Class Ever at the Point are Given Commissions

GEN. PERSHING PRESENT

BEFORE an immense audience, including many officers of high rank, the commencement exercises of the class of 1924 were held on Trophy Point at the U. S. Military Academy on June 12. It was the 123d class to graduate from West Point and the largest in the history of the institution. The graduates numbered 406 men.

The exercises were held at Battle Monument, the famous old memorial erected to the dead of the Regular Army in the Civil War.

Gen. J. J. Pershing congratulated the graduates on their successful completion of the strenuous course and gave them the President's greetings. He told them that the best example they could set to the men they were going to command would be to live up to the motto of their Alma Mater and the best traditions of the Army. He spoke on "Reminiscences" and told numerous interesting incidents of cadet days and the old Army.

The graduating cadets rose as their names were called and marched to the platform to receive their diplomas. The number one man in the class was Wallace H. Hastings of California.

As soon as the exercises were over the Corps of Cadets was marched to the plain, where it was formed in a square and the appointments of cadet officers for the ensuing year was read.

Immediately thereafter the Military Academy dissolved into a scene of turmoil, most of the graduates hastily departing on their graduation leave, while the members of the class of 1926—the Yearlings—were also leaving on their summer furlough.

Chaplain Wheat left at once for the chapel, where he spent the rest of the day performing the marriage ceremony for members of the graduating class. A dozen weddings were solemnized there during the afternoon. They are noted in another column.

Graduation hop was held in the cadet gymnasium the preceding evening and jammed the huge old building to overflowing. Over 1,000 cadets attended, together with many of their friends and officers of the post.

Graduation parade occurred just before the hop, marking the farewell of the graduates to their comrades in the corps. The line of graduates which took the review extended clear across the plain. The corps advanced to the strains of "The Dashing White Sergeant" (reserved for this particular occasion), "Benny Havens" and "Auld Lang Syne." Immediately after dismissal the "plebes" were recognized, or placed on upper class social status, and they staged the customary celebrations.

The graduates attended the Superintendent's reception given by Maj. Gen. Fred W. Sladen, the Superintendent, in his quarters at 4 p.m.

The morning had been given over to Alumni Day exercises and the review of the corps by the alumni.

The ceremonies were brief but impressive. The alumni were headed by President William N. Dykman of the Association of Graduates.

Class dinners were held later by the classes of 1914, 1904, 1894 and 1874.

Among the prominent alumni present were Gen. John J. Pershing, Maj. Gens. John L. Hines, Farnsworth, Goethals, Bailey, Shanks, Bethel, Muir, Holbrook, Siebert, Rabbitt, Ely, Saltzman and Brig. Gens. Parker, Aultman, Andrews, Moseley, Graves, Wells, Hale and Ennis. The oldest graduate present was Gen. Morris Schaff, class of '62. Gen. Pershing took the alumni review after the corps sang "Alma Mater" and "Corps."

Q.M.C. WILL CELEBRATE ITS 149TH ANNIVERSARY

ON June 16, 1775, legislation was enacted in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia, by which was established a Military Stores Department to govern the supply functions of the Colonial forces engaged in their struggle against Great Britain for the independence of the United States of America. This Military Stores Department has had a continuous existence from that date to this and is now known in the United States Army as the Quartermaster Corps.

On June 16 of this year quartermasters of the Army of the United States, namely, the Regulars, Guardsmen and Reservists, together with World War officers not now actively affiliated with the Service, will celebrate throughout every part of the world in which the United States flag flies and in many foreign countries their natal anniversary.

Present plans contemplate holding celebrations simultaneously in France, China, Philippines, Hawaiian Islands, Alaska and throughout the United States.

The Quartermaster General, Maj. Gen. William H. Hart, has requested all quartermasters to participate in the celebration of their natal anniversary on June 16.

WORK BEGUN ON FORT BENNING NEW STADIUM

WHEN Gen. John J. Pershing poured the first yard of concrete for the construction of the gigantic Fort Benning, Ga., athletic stadium on May 24 he started the building of the biggest project of its kind ever undertaken by a branch of the U. S. Army without assistance, financial or otherwise, from the government or outsiders. The Benning stadium will be the training ground for Infantry athletes.

Fort Benning is the home of the United States Infantry School, the largest institution of its kind in the world. The stadium will cost $125,000 and the financial success of the venture is already assured, according to report. More than half of the necessary money has already been subscribed and more than half the money subscribed has been paid in. The officers' clubhouse is assured.

The blue of the Infantry will wave above the structure on its completion and every effort is being made to have it finished by Dec. 6, in the hope of dedicating it with the Alabama Poly Tech. Infantry School game on that date.

The ground was broken by Gen. Wells, head of the post, and Col. A. W. Bjornstad, chief of the Infantry School. The United States Infantry Association is raising its share of the funds.

NEW NAVY REGISTER IS ISSUED FOR YEAR 1924

THE Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, under date of June 5, says: "In the issue of the Navy Register for Jan. 1, 1924, all officers on the active list of the Navy have been credited in the column headed 'Previous Service' only with that prior service which may be counted in the computation of pay in accordance with the act of June 10, 1922.

"With reference to officers of the line on the active list of the Navy who are not graduates of the Naval Academy, and to all officers of the staff corps and all warrant officers, the date of acceptance of permanent appointment is shown in the column headed 'Date of Entry' in lieu of the date of rank on original appointment; this procedure has been followed in view of the fact that the date of acceptance of appointment is the actual date of entry.

"It is believed that this procedure will be of assistance to officers of the Supply Corps, and will reduce the number of statements of service now being furnished by the bureau."

RESERVE OFFICERS MAKE GOOD TRAINING RECORD

THE thirty-seven Reserve officers of the various staff corps and departments who recently completed a period of active training at headquarters, 9th Corps Area, commenced a two days' problem on May 22 which embraced plans for a mobilization of certain Regular Army, National Guard and Organized Reserve troops of the 9th Corps Area under an assumed situation which contemplated hostilities against an imaginary enemy.

Each Reserve officer was charged with making certain preparations and preparing orders pertaining to his corps or detachment which would have to be made in case of actual mobilization. The problem was conducted very satisfactorily and showed that the Reserve officers are familiar with their duties and are keeping themselves informed on military affairs.

MIDSHIPMEN

U.S.N.A., ANNAPOLIS, Md.

ENS. JOHN THOMAS HOGG, U.S.N., who was graduated from the Academy last week was awarded the sword presented annually by the class of 1897, U.S.N.A., to the midshipman who has contributed most by his character and example to the development of military spirit and loyalty in the regiment. Ens. Hogg also receives the honor of having his name inscribed on the '97 cup at the Academy.

The sword was presented to him when he was midshipman commander of the regiment on the evening of June 3 at dress parade. Following the presentation of this and other awards, noted in the ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL, issue of June 7, page 979, he turned the command of the regiment of midshipmen over to the class of 1925 with impressive ceremony.

THE following members of the class of 1924 did not graduate with their classmates on June 14, their commissions or diplomas being held up pending the disposition of their cases by the authorities. All the First Classmen concerned are awaiting a decision on punishment to be awarded for infractions of discipline or regulations.

They are Mdsn. C. H. Price, L. W. Johnson, T. C. Marshall, C. A. Schenck, jr., R. M. Simonton, H. B. Leverett, S. King, R. H. G. Johnson and C. G. Meints, according to advices received from Annapolis.

THE Midshipmen's Practice Squadron, consisting of the U.S.S. Wyoming, Arkansas, New York and Texas, left Annapolis on June 5 for Tor Bay, where they are due on June 18 after a thirteen-day sea "leg" of 3,400 miles.

According to report the squadron is making good time. The class of 1925, now First Class, have been detailed as squad leaders, water tenders in the firerooms and stand junior officers of the deck watches. The classes of 1926 and 1927 have been divided into squads, half serving below decks and half as deck divisions.

The squadron will stay at Tor Bay for a week, during which period it is expected to give the midshipmen and the crews the regular foreign cruise liberty.

ARMY NOTES

THE twelfth annual commencement recital by the Army Music School was held at the Central High School Auditorium, Washington, on May 28. The program consisted of classic and standard music arranged for military bands by members of the graduating class and conducted by them. The graduating class also demonstrated their ability to perform on all band instruments. Two vocal choruses for men's voices were also rendered by the students.

AFTER two unsuccessful attempts to sell the $11,000,000 Port Newark Terminal, near Newark, N.J., both by sealed bids and at public auction, the Secretary of War has authorized the Quartermaster General to lease at public bidding, this huge wartime plant, with all government-owned land, equipment and improvements. At present, this deep-water port facility is vacant and the War Department hopes to lease it for a satisfactory sum for a term of years.

THE annual R.O.T.C. horse show, which was held at the Cavalry field, Michigan Agricultural College several days ago, proved so successful that plans are already underway for holding a similar event next year. Lansing mounts, particularly in the Artillery event, made an excellent showing.

Lt. Col. T. L. Sherburne, whose cadets sponsored the show, entered his favorite horse Mack, which received favorable mention. Army horses, ridden by cadets, won first and second places in the novice high jump.

THE THREE "AGES" OF SHOEMAKING

For centuries and centuries the method of making footwear did not vary. A mural painting discovered in the ruins of ancient Thebes shows Egyptian sandal-makers at work after the manner of the early New England cobblers. Until a few generations ago boots and shoes were made entirely by hand, and wholly by the individual craftsman. This was the first "age" of shoemaking.

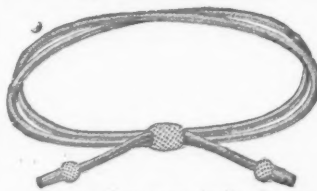

In the Eighteenth Century small domestic shoe-shops arose, and groups of men and women, in shops and homes, made the footwear of the people, the work being more or less divided, but all still done by hand. This was the second "age".

About the middle of the Nineteenth Century the factory system developed and the introduction of shoe machinery began, until to-day in no field of manufacture has greater progress been made or more efficiency been attained through machinery. This is the third "age".

There is a machine now available for practically every process in the making of shoes. And, by the way, there are one hundred and forty different operations in the making of a Goodyear Welt Shoe, universally recognized as without a peer in those qualities which make a shoe desirable,—comfort, durability, appearance.

NOTES FROM THE BATTLE FLEET

THE Navy Department on the request of the hydrographer has directed the commander-in-chief, Battle Fleet, to detail a destroyer equipped with sonic depth finder to survey a shoal off the coast of California. This shoal is marked on the charts "existence doubtful" and is about fifteen miles due west of Point Conception. The U.S.S. Hull has been detailed for this duty.

ORDERS have been received directing the Sapelo to leave San Pedro about June 7 for the navy yard, Charleston, S. C. The Sapelo has been transporting oil for vessels of the Battle Fleet. A limited number of passengers and available freight will be taken by the Sapelo. The Sapelo will stop at Panama to discharge a cargo of fuel oil and at Guantanamo hold target practice. Upon arrival at Charleston she will be given her annual overhaul.

THE Battle Fleet will conduct force practice on Wednesday, June 11, off the California coast. All battleships, with the exception of the U.S.S. Arizona, now attached to the Battle Fleet, twenty-three destroyers and necessary aircraft will take part in this practice. The fleet will rehearse practice on June 10, and, if weather conditions permit, it is hoped to complete the practice on June 11. Due to the absence of Adm. Robison, on temporary duty in Washington, Vice Adm. H. A. Wiley will be in charge of the practice.

THE annual inspection of all the battleships which are now with the fleet, will be made prior to the sailing of the fleet on June 25. With the completion of force practice on June 11 all battleships will have completed the gunnery year, with the exception of the U.S.S. Oklahoma, which will complete the practice by June 25.

THE attention of the city of Los Angeles has been called to the landing field facilities for aircraft in the vicinity of Los Angeles Harbor. The present field used by land planes attached to the Battle Fleet is operated by a commercial concern at Wilmington, some miles from the anchorage. This field is considered too small and without the necessary facilities required for handling the number of planes used by the Battle Fleet. Also, there is no means for hauling out large seaplanes used daily by the Fleet. It is stated that steps will be taken very shortly to provide the harbor with an excellent aviation field where both land and seaplanes can be based.

THE commander, Destroyer Squadrons, has detailed the following destroyers to attend the Rose Carnival at Portland, Ore., June 10-15: U.S.S. Marcus, Merivine, Chase, Robert Smith, Henshaw and Moody.

Lt. Comdr. T. F. Caldwell, commanding U.S.S. Henshaw, will be in command of this detachment. These ships will leave San Diego June 6, arriving at Portland June 10, and will leave Portland on June 15 and arrive at San Diego June 18, except that the Henshaw on leaving Portland will proceed direct to the navy yard, Puget Sound, for overhaul.

THE U.S.S. Sirius arrived from the Atlantic coast on June 3 and departed for San Francisco on June 5. The Sirius brought some personnel and considerable stores for the fleet.

A LARGE number of the personnel of the Marine detachments of the Battle Fleet will be transferred to shore stations before the departure of the fleet on June 25. Their places will be filled by approximately 300 Marines from the Marine Expeditionary Force based at San Diego. A considerable number of officers serving with these detachments will also be transferred to shore stations about this time.

THE Navy Department has arranged with the Los Angeles Steamship Company for the transportation of officers who are ordered to Hawaiian Islands from ships of the Battle Fleet. Practically all officers having families are sent by ships of this line from Southern California ports to Honolulu.

ON June 5 the U.S.S. Sapelo sailed from San Pedro for Charleston, S.C. The Sapelo carried a cargo of fuel oil for the Canal Zone and had a considerable number of passengers for the East coast. Upon arrival at Charleston the Sapelo will be given her annual docking and overhaul.

THE Japanese naval oil tanker H.I.M. Sata will arrive in San Francisco June 4 and in San Pedro June 8. The Sata will load fuel oil at San Pedro and sail on June 13 for Japan, via Honolulu.

THE U.S.S. Tennessee now acting as flagship of Battleship Division 4 will be transferred back to Division 5 when the U.S.S. Arizona arrives from the navy yard about July 8. The new organization of the fleet shifts the U.S.S. Tennessee to the 4th Division upon the joining up of the Colorado and West Virginia. Due to the delay in reporting of the last two ships the Tennessee will join Battleship Division 5 until the arrival of the new ships.

THE U.S.S. Chaumont left San Pedro on June 11 for the east coast, taking as passengers a large number of enlisted men whose enlistments expire prior to Aug. 1 and who enlisted east of the Mississippi river. The Chaumont stopped at San Pedro only long enough to pick up passengers.

L. T. E. R. BROWN (S.C.), U.S.N., now under arrest on the U.S.S. Omaha at San Diego, will be brought to trial by general court-martial on June 12. Lt. Brown is charged with taking a large sum of money while attached to Destroyer Division 31.

CAPT. STANFORD E. MOSES relieved Capt. A. W. Marshall in command of the Aircraft Squadrons, Battle Fleet, on May 31. Practically all officers attached to the Aircraft Squadrons were present at the Naval Air Station, San Diego, Calif., when Capt. Marshall was relieved.

THE schedule for the U.S.S. Argonne and Vega on sailing for the Asiatic Station has been changed as follows: Vega leaves San Francisco June 12 for San Pedro; Argonne sails from San Francisco for San Pedro June 14. Both ships will leave San Pedro as soon as the passengers are embarked. These ships were diverted to San Pedro to pick up the officers from the Battle Fleet who have been ordered to the Asiatic Station and who, due to firing of force practice on June 11 by the Battle Fleet, could not be detached from the ships in time to reach San Francisco prior to the original sailing dates of these transports on June 14.

ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT

THE 75-mm. gun, model 1923, has been completed at Watervliet Arsenal and shipped to Rock Island Arsenal. The 75-mm. gun carriage, model 1923, is progressing satisfactorily. The gun and carriage will be given a proof test later at Aberdeen.

THE design of the 105-mm. howitzer carriage, model 1925E, has been approved, with the exception of minor details of the carriage. Approval has been given for the procurement of material, however, so that manufacture of the pilot will not be delayed on that account. The howitzer will have a side sliding block with a vertical opening to facilitate loading. A safety device has been added which must be released by the cannoneer putting in the cartridge case, before the lock can be closed. Otherwise, it might be possible to close the block too soon and catch his hand between the block and the left side of the vertical opening.

THE 75-mm. pack howitzer, model 1922E, type B, has satisfactorily passed the preliminary firing test at Rock Island Arsenal, and is now at Aberdeen Proving Ground for the complete proof test.

SPECIAL CONVENTION SERVICE NEWS LETTER

by E. B. JOHNS

Washington Correspondent of the Army and Navy Journal

A NOTABLE gathering was held at the Winton Hotel on June 10 at Cleveland which will doubtlessly inaugurate a movement which will make the veterans of the World War a power in the affairs of the nation, as the veterans of all other wars have been in the history of the country. It was a caucus of the Service delegates and Service leaders at the Republican National Convention. Resolutions were adopted demanding—

1. That a soldier be placed on the national ticket as a candidate for Vice President; and
2. Appointing a committee with a view of agreeing upon a soldier to be presented to the convention.

Even before the convention convened there had been suggestions of different prominent soldiers for the second place on the ticket. It was conceded that Calvin Coolidge would be the nominee of the convention for President and Service men have approached the leaders of the party with the suggestion that they take some soldier and push his campaign for the nomination. The suggestion was discouraged by the old-time leaders and in some cases even scorned.

The veterans did not conduct any per-convention campaign, as they were hoping that the party leaders would see the political advantage of recognizing some prominent soldier of the World War. Gen. Harbord was suggested by most of the veterans, but there was considerable support for Gen. Frank T. Hines, Director of the Veterans' Bureau, and Brig. Gen. Charles G. Dawes. Gen. Hines was delegate at the convention from Utah and his record in the Veterans' Bureau appealed to the Service men. But it was the fighting record of Gen. Harbord that carried the caucus. The fact that he enlisted in the Army as a private and fought his way up to major general leading combat troops at Belleau Wood and Soissons and other engagements thrilled the caucus as his supporters, including Col. Theodore Roosevelt, James Williams, editor of the Boston Transcript; Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, editor of the ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL; Ralph Love, delegate from Kansas; Francis L. Boutell, delegate from Illinois, and a number of soldiers who had served with him, recounted his record.

GEN. HARBORD'S RECORD

Gen. Harbord's record as an organizer with the S.O.S. and in business life was also a factor in his selection, for it was realized by the members of the caucus that in placing a candidate before the convention they must select a soldier with demonstrative ability as an executive and one who could conduct a speaking campaign. Gen. Harbord filled all of these qualifications and was selected as the soldier candidate representing every state with Service delegates in the convention.

Col. John Thomas Taylor called the meeting to order and asked for nominations for chairman. A motion was made that Col. Taylor continue to act as chairman of the caucus. He declined positively and Col. MacNider was suggested, but the former commander of the American Legion declined in favor of Col. A. Platt Andrews, member of Congress from Massachusetts, who was elected unanimously. By a unanimous vote Col. Taylor was elected secretary.

Col. Andrews in accepting the chairmanship declared that he had not been advised of the purpose of the meeting, but he naturally assumed that the Service delegates at the convention had reached the conclusion that they ought to get together and agree on some action on matters that would be before the convention.

Senator David Reed of Pennsylvania, who was an emergency officer; Representative Royal Johnson of South Dakota, one of the prominent leaders of the Service bloc in Congress; Representative Green of Iowa, the author of the Soldiers' Compensation act, and Senator Bursum of New Mexico, author of the Bursum bill providing for the retirement of disabled emergency officers, were present at the conference and made speeches supporting the general proposition that ex-Service men get together and insist upon the nomination of a soldier as Vice President.

It was Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, who first suggested that the caucus should make a definite recommendation as to who it preferred as the representative of Service men on the presidential ticket with Calvin Coolidge. Col. Roosevelt declared that the veterans should not only get together on a candidate for Vice President, but should indicate to the convention what resolutions should be passed affecting the Army and Navy.

"If you do not know," exclaimed Col. Roosevelt, "what the country should have in the way of an Army and Navy, I do not know who does. You have been in it and know what it means."

Col. Roosevelt then proceeded to put the name of Gen. Harbord before the caucus. He described how Gen. Harbord entered the Regular Army as a private, and how he rose to a major general. He related how his father, former President Roosevelt, had selected Gen. Harbord as second in the command of the division which he proposed to raise at the beginning of the World War. He got a real rise out of the caucus when he referred to the fact that a Democratic President had kept his father and Gen. Harbord from going in at the beginning of the conflict.

GEN. HARBORD LAUDED

Chairman Andrews called upon Mr. Williams, editor of the Boston Transcript, who was covering the convention, to address the caucus. Col. Andrews told the caucus that Jimmy Williams, as he affectionately called him, had been with the veterans in every fight, adjusted compensation and all. He said that although he was the editor of the most conservative paper in New England, he was the most aggressive in supporting measures for the veterans of the war.

Mr. Williams paid an eloquent tribute to Gen. Harbord, describing how he had just come from Chattanooga where a meeting of the veterans at a dedication of a monument had endorsed Gen. Harbord for the nomination. He said that he came with a message from veterans and he was pleased to deliver it to the caucus.

The chairman called on Gen. Reilly, who, he declared, had been one of the early advocates of preparedness and who had worked steadily in this cause ever since, besides having had wide experience as a combat soldier. Gen. Reilly stated that being a member of the Legion of Illinois and the son of a veteran of the Civil War who had come from the ranks, he considered it an honor to propose Gen. Harbord, whose father fought through the Civil War in the 5th Illinois Cavalry and who himself is a member of an Illinois camp of the Spanish War veterans and an Illinois post of the American Legion. He told of the difficulties of rising from the ranks at the time Gen. Harbord succeeded in doing so and contrasted the hardships of service as a private in those days with the present ones of much easier conditions. He told of Gen. Harbord's service on the battle fields of Belleau Wood and the Philippine Insurrection, of his service on the battle fields of Belleau Wood and Soissons.

MR. BURTON CHANGES

The speech of Representative Theodore E. Burton of Ohio as permanent chairman of the Republican National Convention was a remarkable concession on his part to the cause of preparedness. It should be borne in mind that Mr. Burton was one of the original advocates of the Parliamentary Union, which was really a forerunner of the League of Nations. Over twenty years ago Mr. Burton was advocating international peace agreements and although a Republican he supported the League of Nations with reservations. He was what was known as a mild reservationist. Mr. Burton, who has been a member of both the Senate and the House, is a dreamer. He is sincere in his belief that some international agreement can be reached which will prevent war. The failure of the League of Nations must be a severe shock to him, and his speech amounts to a confession that any effective international agreement upon which this nation can depend is in the dim future.

Mr. Burton's utterances on the question of preparedness are all the more significant in view of the fact that he must have gone over it with President Coolidge before he took it to Cleveland. It was given out in Cleveland as a government document with the imprint of the Government Printing Office upon it. It will doubtlessly be used as a campaign pamphlet this year.

PREPAREDNESS

"We have abhorred war, and never more than now," said Mr. Burton, when he touched upon preparedness. There is not an advocate of preparedness that will not agree with this. Everybody abhors war, and none more than the Army and Navy, which have been called upon to bear the brunt of all wars. The personnel of both establishments suffer more in war than the rest of the country. Continuing, Mr. Burton says:

"But if again that which we deplore should happen, and we should be involved in another deadly conflict, let us establish a system which will mobilize all our resources for victory. We cannot afford to allow the slacker to shirk his duty or give the profiteers an opportunity to pile up fortunes when those who stand for patriotism are suffering and dying. We must establish the great ideal that in the emergency of war every agency of industry and commerce, our man power, and the activities of men and women shall be such as to accomplish the single purpose of saving our country from danger. President Harding spoke eloquently in his inaugural address in behalf of such a plan."

Mr. Burton supported the President's attitude on the bonus. At the same time he indicated that Congress had settled this issue by passing the Adjusted Compensation action. On this subject he said:

"We have recently witnessed the passage over the veto of the President of a so-called bonus or adjusted compensation bill providing for paid-up insurance policies to soldiers of the late war. While recognizing the inestimable debt which the country owes to those who fought in the bloody contest in 1917 and 1918, and with satisfaction in the thought that for insurance, for the care of the injured and the sick, and for their training and betterment we are expending an amount which in one year reached almost $450,000,000, there was a substantial minority in Congress who sought to sustain the President. But the bonus act is now the law of the land. Conditions created by it must be met and its provisions must be willingly accepted."

WEEKS AND ROOSEVELT ACTIVE

Secretary of War Weeks and Assistant Secretary of the Navy were at the convention interested in securing preparedness planks in the platform of the convention. Both of them were very active in this direction and their rooms at the hotel were the scenes of numerous conferences participated in by those who were interested in preparedness.

It was no secret that Secretary Weeks favored the nomination of Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord as Vice President, at the same time the Secretary was not in a position to come out in a statement endorsing Gen. Harbord. President Coolidge in the beginning assumed "hands off" attitude in selecting his running mate, other than to let it be known that he did not want a radical Republican. He wanted a straight Republican, but would not name the man.

Before the convention convened Lowden partisans announced that the former governor of Illinois was the President's choice. They did not quote the President directly on the subject, but filled the papers with rumors that the President intended to ask the convention to nominate Lowden. This brought a positive denial from the White House which caused a reaction against Governor Lowden. President Coolidge did not give instructions to any one to speak for him on the subject, and in consequence Secretary Weeks was compelled to avoid any commitment for publication of Gen. Harbord's candidacy. At the same time, when his advice was asked, it was known that Secretary Weeks described Gen. Harbord's qualifications in a manner to indicate that if he was called upon to select a man that Gen. Harbord would be his first choice.

GEN. HARBORD'S ABILITY RECOGNIZED

It was remarkable that no ex-Service man questioned the ability of Gen. Harbord to qualify as a vice president candidate, or as far as that is concerned, as President. They all recognized his ability and most of them were his most enthusiastic admirers. Some of them were still unfriendly to the Regular Army as an establishment, but admitted Gen. Harbord's popularity and insisted that he was an exception. There was, however, an indication of a great change in the sentiment of the political leaders at the convention toward the Regular Establishment. The effect of the summer training camps, in which such close relations are being established between the Regular Army, National Guard and Reserves was noticeable at this convention and there was no bitter denunciation of the Regular Army. In some quarters the advisability of nominating a Regular was questioned because it was stated that the country at large did not understand the Regulars. But there were a great many ex-Service men who were delegates to the convention who were ready to meet this argument and defend the Regular soldier.

Governor Charles R. Mabey, Utah; Arthur Woolley, chairman of the Utah delegation, and Col. Thomas Miller, Alien Property Custodian, strongly urged the endorsement of Gen. Hines. Governor Mabey very eloquently reviewed the military record of Gen. Hines and pointed out that he had resigned while a brigadier general to go into private business and had made good. He called attention to Gen. Hines's great constructive work as Director of the Veterans' Bureau and expressed the belief that Gen. Hines's nomination would meet with the approval of the great body of veterans.

Col. Ralph Cole, who is a delegate from Ohio, presented the name of Gen. Dawes in a most forceful manner. Col. Cole is one of the ablest political speakers in the country and he was at his best when he spoke for Gen. Dawes. He declared that Gen. Dawes was the outstanding international figure in the restoration of the world to normal conditions after the war. He expressed the belief that the naming of Gen. Dawes would be an honor to the veterans.

The committee appointed to present Gen. Harbord's name to the convention was stirring early on the day following the caucus. It held a meeting at 9 o'clock and organized for business. The situation in each state delegation was gone over and plans were formed by which members of the committee would enlist veteran workers in each delegation.

After the convention adjourns steps will be taken to make the veteran caucus committee permanent.

5TH INFANTRY DIVISION

ONE of the most difficult and complicated maneuvers undertaken by a command of the size of the 10th Infantry Brigade was held at Camp Knox, Ky., by that organization on June 6 and 7, for the annual tactical inspection by the corps area commander, Gen. Dwight E. Aultman. The maneuver, as outlined by the brigade plans and training officer, Capt. R. Baker, was the forcing of a crossing over Salt river, which runs through the military reservation, and launching a surprise attack, driving the enemy from his position northeast of Hooker Mountain.

The troops composing the brigade were the 10th Infantry commanded by Col. G. F. Gohn; the 11th Infantry, Col. E. J. Nowlen; the 3d Field Artillery, under the command of Maj. E. G. Helmick; Troop G, 6th Cav., Capt. W. G. Ingram, and a provisional engineer company commanded by Lt. H. D. Porter, 11th Inf. Col. J. T. Dean, 11th Inf., commanded the brigade.

The brigade left Camp Knox at 9:15 a. m. June 6, remaining on the maneuver until 5:50 a. m. June 7. The attack began at 4 a. m. June 7, which was designated as the H hour. The 88th Observation Squadron reconnoitered the enemy's territory and reported all enemy movements to the brigade commander. The 7th Photo Section prepared photographs of the enemy's position.

The troops carried one cooked meal on the problem, and supper was served to them under the cover of darkness prior to crossing the river over a Lampert portable foot bridge. As the element of surprise played such an important part in the maneuver it was necessary to forbid lights, smoking and fires other than for cooking, and to caution the troops to move with the least possible noise.

PHILIPPINE INFANTRY DIVISION

THE sixty-third anniversary of the organization of the 15th Infantry—the China Regiment—was fittingly celebrated at Tientsin on May 5 and 6.

On the morning of the 5th Brig. Gen. William D. Connor, commanding the American Forces in China, presented the new battle streamers to the regiment, after which the regiment passed in review before Col. Campbell King, the regimental commander, with Gen. Connor as a distinguished guest. Other guests were Maj. Gen. Omar Bundy, who is touring China on leave; Maj. Gen. K. Yoshioka, commanding Imperial Japanese troops in North China; Col. Sautel, commandant le Corps Francais d'Occupation de Chine; Col. F. W. Greenhill, commanding His Britannic Majesty's troops in North China; Mr. C. E. Gauss, American Consul General, Tientsin; Maj. Gen. Yang I Teh, commissioner of defense, Province of Chihli; officers from the French and Japanese garrisons as well as from the 1st Battalion, the Loyal North Lancashires; and a very representative group of the civilians of Tientsin. These officers were so consistent in their praise of the appearance of the regiment that the regimental commander issued a general order commending the officers and men upon their splendid showing.

From five until 7:30 that evening the officers of the regiment were hosts at a tea-dance at the Astor House Hotel to the officers and ladies of the staff of the American Forces in China and American Barracks, their civilian friends in Tientsin and to the officers and ladies of the foreign garrisons. The 15th Infantry orchestra furnished the music.

On the morning of the 6th there was a track and field meet and in the afternoon some unusual and amusing competitions in mass athletics, ending with a ricksha race, in which one man rode while the other one pulled him—changing places as they saw fit. Co. H finally nosed Co. G out of the lead and were the winners for the day. It was the best track meet that the old-timers have ever seen in China.

Last was the picnic which was held in the Chinese gardens adjacent to the compound at six o'clock that night. It was a regular old-fashioned hot dog roast with mustard and cheese sandwiches.

1ST CAVALRY DIVISION

COL. ROMEYN, commanding the 2d Cav., U.S.A., in G.O. 5, May 30, 1924, Fort Riley, Kas., publishes the following: "Lincoln citizens have a better estimate of Uncle Sam's Army since the visit of two units of the 'regulars' in connection with the military show, which was staged at the state fair grounds last week.

"They were a fine looking bunch of men. Their behavior, during the time they were in camp here, was a credit not only to themselves, but to the officers commanding them. There has always been more or less ill-founded and loose talk about the lax conditions existing around Army camps. For many years previous to the World War, and even during the war, it was heard more or less around cantonments. Somehow the impression seemed to prevail that in some instances, the soldiers, when free of restraint, conducted themselves unbecomingly.

"Battery A of the 9th Field Artillery, commanded by Capt. J. D. White, and Troop F of the 2d U.S. Cavalry, commanded by Capt. C. H. Palmer, dispelled these illusions. A finer, cleaner bunch of men never gathered under a flag.

"Lincoln will recall their visit with a great deal of pleasure. It hopes to have the opportunity to entertain them again."

—Editorial, Lincoln Star.

My Dear Sir: The above clipping reflects the true sentiment of the people of Lincoln. The Reserve officers of Lincoln are proud of these organizations. I am happy to bring this comment to your attention. Cordially,

J. G. FAES, Maj., F.A.O.R.C.

62D CAVALRY DIVISION

THE series of monthly dinners of the 305th Cavalry culminated on May 29 with the most successful of these dinners. On that date the regimental annual dinner was held at the Rabbit Club, Bala, Pa.

Forty officers of the regiment were present and among the guests were the following: Lt. Col. H. R. Smalley, Cav., U.S.A.; Maj. Glassford, F.A., U.S.A., War College; Maj. Gardner, Fin. O.R.C., Philadelphia; Capt. DeMolyen, formerly of 7th British Lances; Capt. Groome, jr., Cav. O.R.C.; Mr. Dahlstrom and Mr. Everett Kent, Philadelphia.

On the afternoon of May 29, prior to the regimental annual dinner a number of the officers of the 305th Cavalry attended the horse show at Devon, Pa. On this date the 305th Cavalry had four entries in the military chargers class.

Although not winning the blue ribbon in this event they were awarded the second and third places. Capt. George A. Good-year of the Regular Service won the blue and the handsome cup presented by Col. John C. Groome, commanding officer of the 305th Cavalry. The second place was annexed by 1st Lt. Max Livingston, riding Fleetfoot, third place by 2d Lt. William McKinley Bray on his hunter Killarney. Fourth place went to the 1st City Troop, Philadelphia.

With deep regret Col. Groome has announced in a general order the death of Capt. Clarence Walsh, staff section of the 305th Cavalry. Capt. Walsh died in Philadelphia on June 1 and was buried with military honors at Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C., on June 6.

Maj. Robert R. D. McCullough, Cav. O.R.C., assistant executive officer of the 305th Cavalry is now in charge of the Philadelphia office, during the absence of Col. Smalley. Col. Smalley has been ordered to temporary duty as adjutant of the summer camp at Camp Meade, Md.

ARMY NOTES

TEN of eleven candidates for entry to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., who were coached by 1st Lt. C. J. Kanaga, 11th F.A., and 2d Lt. E. L. McGaw, 13th F.A., in charge of the West Point Prep School, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, were successful in their examinations and will enter the Point this summer. The successful candidates were Corps. H. L. Flood, 27th Inf.; Ray K. Hess, Q.M.C., and James L. Duncan, C.A.C., and Privts. A. Hartman, Kay Rasmussen, Walter McFeeley, George M. Hall, Lloyd R. Bowman, James E. Totten and Mr. Robert S. Israel, son of Lt. R. S. Israel, 19th Inf.

REV. MARION D. SHUTTER, D.D., pastor of the First Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Minneapolis, Minn., recently made a vigorous attack on the pacifist policy and "no war" agitation in the churches of this country, particularly emphasizing that it is churches' duty to defend Christianity as the Crusaders defended it from unjust assaults in the Middle Ages.

He pointed out in his reply to the "non-resistance" advocates that Constantine fell in 1453 because the priests told the people not to fight as an angel would protect them. Instead of an angel, he said, they found themselves subject to the Turkish yoke in a bondage which survives to the present day.

The right attitude, he declared, is to do one's best to promote peace and to suppress the passions from which war springs, but always to stand ready to protect the weak and defend hearth and home from outrage and oppression. The call of one's country, he concluded, he regarded and responded to "as the voice of God."

THE Army Air Service team, which will be one of three entries representing the United States in the Gordon Bennett International Balloon Race at Brussels, Belgium, June 15, 1924, sailed from New York May 28, on the S.S. President Harding. The members of the team are Maj. Norman W. Peek, pilot; 1st Lt. William A. Gray, aid; 1st Lt. Max F. Moyer, alternate and operations officer. These officers represented the Army in the National Elimination Balloon Race which started from San Antonio, Texas, May 23. In that race they landed at St. Angelo, Iowa, on May 25, after having gone 121 miles air line, which was a longer distance than any Army balloon had covered in such an event.

In the Gordon Bennett Race they will use a balloon weighing approximately 455 pounds less than the one used by them in the National Race. Because of the decrease in weight they are hopeful of being able to remain in the air for a much greater distance. The international record is 1,896 miles.

THE following states have had more than five organizations in various cities adopt resolutions indorsing the National Defense act of 1920 and have forwarded copies to Headquarters, 4th Corps Area, Atlanta, Ga.:

Alabama—Chambers of Commerce at Anniston, Montgomery, Mobile, Huntsville and Birmingham, and Lions Club, Tuscaloosa.

Louisiana—Chambers of Commerce at Alexandria, Lake Charles, New Orleans, Shreveport and Lafayette.

North Carolina—Chambers of Commerce at Fayetteville, Raleigh, Wilmington, Charlotte and Asheville.

HORSE SHOW OPENER OF U.S.M.A. JUNE WEEK

General Hines is Guest of Honor at West Point
Ceremony

SOCIAL LEADERS ATTEND

ONE of the best annual West Point horse shows ever staged at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y., opened the June Week festivities on Monday. Features of the occasion were a guest luncheon at Cullum Hall, a dinner given to the exhibitors and their friends by the directors of the Horse Show Association, and a hop given to the graduating class of cadets by the post officers. A special review of the Cadet Corps was held in honor of Maj. Gen. John L. Hines, Deputy Chief of Staff, U.S.A.

The contests were closely contested, the exhibitions given in the ring by the cadets being excellent. The formations the cadets went through under the direction of Maj. G. C. R. Schwenck, secretary of the show, drew considerable applause from the spectators.

Cadet Demas T. Crow, '24, U.S.M.A., received a cup from Maj. Gen. Fred W. Sladen for having done the most for the West Point polo team during the season. An artillery exhibition by a detachment of Field Artillery, six-horse gun teams and escort wagons were other features.

In the open jumpers' class sixteen horses competed. The first result was a tie between Miss Sally Lanier on Silver Crest and Mr. W. H. Lockwood on Jasbo. Mr. Harry Worcester Smith was the judge. The horses tied again on the jump-off. In the third competition Silver Crest won.

William T. Koch judged the saddle horses, George C. Sherman the polo mounts, Mr. Smith the hunters and jumpers and Col. George Vidmer the military classes.

The West Point Horse Show Association officers are: Gen. Pershing, honorary president; Maj. Gen. Fred W. Sladen, president; Lt. Col. Pierre Lorillard, jr., honorary vice president; Col. M. B. Stewart, vice president; Chaplain Clayton E. Wheat, treasurer; Maj. J. C. R. Schwenck, secretary; Maj. C. H. Stearns and William S. Fritz, assistant secretaries.

The winners:
Horses suitable for U.S. Artillery, Capt. J. D. Joiner's Rose, first.

Polo mounts or branded hacks, Maj. W. Griswold's Tourlbourg, first.

Officers' light-weight chargers, Maj. C. P. Stearn's Jessie Girl, first.

FIRMS CO-OPERATING WITH WAR DEPARTMENT

THAT the business houses of the country are co-operating with the War Department in carrying out the provisions of the National Defense act is evidenced by the action of more than twenty Philadelphia corporations in opening their doors to the student officers of the Quartermaster Corps School, who have just completed a two weeks' assignment in these establishments. Great stress has been laid by the school on office organization and management, business methods, and the use of commercial language in dealing with the industrial world. Not only have prominent men in the business life of the nation given part of their time to instruct in their particular line of endeavor, but the theoretical side has been covered by lectures, while the military side has been taken care of by Army instructors.

In his report to the Quartermaster General, Lt. Col. Will H. Point, Q.M.C., assistant to the commandant of the Quartermaster School, said:

"The cordial relations which exist between the school and the business interests of Philadelphia and the vicinity testify to the eagerness and willingness of these patriotic citizens to aid in every manner, even at the expense of time and funds, to make the provisions of the National Defense act possible of accomplishment as far as they pertain to the Quartermaster Corps."

In order that the students might be given the opportunity this year to make a detailed study of the business methods employed by the various Philadelphia commercial houses arrangements were made to extend the course of instruction. Subjects taken up by the student officers were office organization, warehousing, tire manufacture, care and storage, cold storage, paper manufacture, bread and its handling, water, freight and passenger traffic, rail and motor traffic, preparation, care and preservation of coffee, teas and spices, meats and meat products, salvage methods, etc. Among the corporations who opened their doors to the student officers' fortnight instruction course were the Yellow Cab Co., Pennsylvania Railroad, the Hitler Salvage Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Co., Reading Railroad, American Railway Express, Ajax Rubber Co., McDowell Paper Mills, Philadelphia Tidewater Terminal, and the E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co.

EMPLOYERS BACK C.M.T.C. INDUSTRY BOARD SHOWS

THE Citizens' Military Training Camps of the country have improved the morale of the young men who attend them, in the opinion of a number of employers, according to a survey of this phase of military training just completed by the National Industrial Conference Board of 247 Park avenue.

In addition to benefits ascribed to the camps, the board has found that employers in the territory covered by the survey were unanimous in permitting their men to attend them, and that more than 75 per cent. of those consulted give full pay for the time passed there.

The results of the survey were made known to-day on the eve of the opening of the first of these camps throughout the country—that of the 9th Corps Area in San Francisco—marking their continuous duration until the close of the Plattsburg, N.Y., camp at the end of August. The San Francisco camp opens on June 12.

A number of concerns have stipulated that their men going to military camps should take the time off at their own expense, but the majority made no discrimination. Most of those covered in the survey have ruled that the military vacation should be in lieu of regular vacations, although a few give the customary vacation as well.

The companies were divided in their opinions as to the benefits obtained from military training. The greater majority had not yet been able as yet to advise definitely what benefits they and their men have derived from it, but feel that the employee's morale has been definitely improved by this training, and for this reason both the employer and the employee are benefited.

BRIG. GEN. BUTLER WILL GET DEGREE FROM P.M.C.

THE commencement exercises at Pennsylvania Military College, Chester, Pa., which will be held on Wednesday, June 18, will be featured by the award of honorary degrees to several distinguished men, including Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, U.S.M.C., as master of military science, and James Stewart Richardson, former executive officer, Intelligence Service, Gen. Staff, A.E.F., as master of arts.

The graduation ceremonies and festivities for the week preceding will be part of the 62d annual commencement of the college and the 103d anniversary of the founding of the institution.

TRAINING PLANS FOR Q.M. RESERVE OFFICERS

LT. COL. WALTER A. DEMPSEY, Q.M.C., O.R.C., left Washington on June 3 on a 4,000 mile trip, during which he will address groups of Reserve officers, chambers of commerce and other business men's organizations relative to a training plan for Quartermaster Corps officers which is known as the "Winter Plattsburg." Courses like those given in New York last winter will be established by Col. Dempsey in Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, Columbus, Louisville, Kansas City and Atlanta.

It is Gen. Hart's idea to have officers properly trained for the various Q.M. tasks and duties prior to mobilization, so that the World War mistakes and delays will not be repeated. Many constructive suggestions and enthusiastic responses are being received from the series of personal letters sent out by the Quartermaster General to the 9,000 Reserve quartermasters and more men are applying and being commissioned in this corps than at any time since the war.

NOTABLES ATTEND THE ANNAPOLIS REUNION

Two Cabinet Officers Among Alumni at Naval Academy

800 GRADUATES PRESENT

BETWEEN 700 and 800 graduates of the Naval Academy, something over a quarter of the total number living, attended the reunion at the Academy on Saturday, May 31, after the athletic contests.

During the morning and afternoon most of the graduates attended the sports, and in the evening the business meeting, including election of officers, was held, followed by the banquet.

Rear Adm. Oscar F. Stanton, New London, Conn., class of 1849, by virtue of being the oldest living graduate, will be president, according to the association's by-laws. He will be 90 years old June 18.

Col. Robert M. Thompson, 1868, was elected chairman of the Board of Control. Others chosen on this body are Rear Adm. W. W. Phelps, 1889; Rear Adm. R. M. Watt, 1891; Capt. D. M. Garrison, 1895 (also re-elected secretary-treasurer); Comdr. Byron McCandless, 1905, and Lt. Comdr. S. A. Clements, 1907.

The reunion was the first since 1916, and the suggestion of Secretary of War Weeks, in his toast, urging continuance of such gatherings annually met with hearty accord. The class of 1907 had the largest representation at the banquet—37.

The big throng of graduates represented practically every class from the Civil War days of '63 up to and including the ensigns of last year's class.

The spirit of good fellowship prevailed. The oldest living graduate present was Colby M. Chester, retired, while the youngest, W. S. Ginn, 1923, acted as adjutant at the battalion formation for the march to the banquet room in Bancroft Hall. It was his largest reunion and banquet of the Naval Academy Graduates' Association that has ever taken place.

Gray-haired admirals long on the retired list and others doing active duty mingled with the youngest of 1923. Conspicuous in the throng were Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and Secretary of War Weeks, the former an alumnus of 1888 and the latter of 1881.

Col. Robert M. Thompson, 1868, of New York, long in civil life, but one of the Academy's staunchest friends and benefactors of athletics, acted as toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "The President," Secretary of War Weeks; "The Navy," Secretary of Navy Wilbur; "The Naval Academy," Rear Adm. Henry B. Wilson, Superintendent, class of 1881; "Naval History and Naval Traditions," Rear Adm. Albert Gleaves, 1887; "Graduates Out of the Service," Homer L. Ferguson, 1892; "Youngsters of the Service," Lt. Comdr. F. S. Witherspoon, 1915; "Athletics," Comdr. Byron McCandless, 1905; "Sweethearts and Wives," Capt. Watt Tyler Cluverius.

OFFICERS OF NAVY FOR AVIATION TRAINING

SEVENTY-SIX Navy officers have been selected for aviation training in the new class which will start during the summer at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. This is the largest class of student naval aviators that have ever been selected for flight duty since the war-time period.

The selection was made from more than 100 applications. Only those applicants who had two or more years of sea duty since graduation from the Naval Academy were designated by the board. The new class will start training about Aug. 15.

NAVY DEPARTMENT WANTS OLD RECORDS

THE Navy Department has prepared a letter to be sent to all ships and stations announcing that it desires to acquire letters, journals, pictures and other documentary material of historical interest pertaining to the Navy. A large but incomplete collection is already on file, and many documents still in private hands are needed to supplement the official records.

It is the purpose of the Department hereafter to give greater attention to the preservation of such sources of the history and traditions of the Navy. To this end the present collection is being systematically arranged so as to make more accessible the information which it contains, and special care is being taken against loss or deterioration of the older material.

Donations or loans of old naval documents will be gladly accepted and should be forwarded to "The Superintendent, Office of Naval Records, Navy Department, Washington, D.C."

SAN FRANCISCANS THANK ARMY FOR CO-OPERATION

MR. J. HARRY RUSSELL, chairman of the Executive Committee, Boys' Week, San Francisco, recently sent the following letter to Maj. Gen. Charles G. Morton thanking him for the participation of the Army units in the Boys' Week exercises. He wrote:

"It is with feeling of deep pride and appreciation on behalf of Mayor Rolph's citizen committee that we address you to thank you and your officers and men for the hearty support and co-operation you have given San Francisco's 1924 Boys' Week."

"The participation of the United States Army troops in this parade was a feature that appeals to every one and in this specific instance you can readily understand how pleased and happy the boys of San Francisco are to know that the Army turned out as their escort of honor."

"The Executive Committee also desires to convey to you and those responsible for the C.M.T.C. Del Monte float their keen pleasure of this float in the parade. The Awards Committee has notified this office that it has conferred highly meritorious commendation on the float, and we take this opportunity of notifying you in this regard."

FLAG DAY PARADE AT NEW YORK CITY JUNE 14

PLANS for the largest Flag Day parade ever held in New York, sponsored by the National League of Masonic Clubs, are now completed, according to Capt. W. F. Gent, U.S.A., recruiting officer at 39 Whitehall street, New York city. The parade will take place June 14 up Fifth avenue and will be reviewed by Governor Smith and Mayor Hylan at Columbus Circle.

One notable division of the parade will be the Philadelphia delegation of 2,500 led by Mayor W. Freeland Kendrick. Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, U.S.M.C., Director of Public Safety, will lead a contingent of 1,000 Philadelphia firemen and policemen.

The line of march will be down Fifth avenue from 78th to 23d street. Col. Sydney Grant, 13th C.A.C., N.Y.N.G., is grand marshal. Included in the parade will be thirty-two floats depicting various patriotic and historic events.

ARMY LENDS PLANE TO OKLAHOMA OFFICIAL

AN adequate reply to the pacifist claims of the heartlessness of the Army was made by an instance recently reported from Oklahoma City, Okla., by a citizen there. He wrote:

"As an example of the spirit which is dominating the new Army and the close relationship which exists between it and our civilian population I recite the following:

"Recently about 8 o'clock in the morning I had a telephone communication from the Attorney General's office stating that the mother of Asst. Atty. Gen. King was lying at the point of death at Wichita Falls, a place 175 miles distant with very poor rail and highway connections.

"Asst. Atty. Gen. King was very anxious to get to his mother's bedside and asked if I could intercede with the department to get him a plane. I called Gen. Irwin at Fort Sill, who got me in touch with Maj. S. G. Lamphier, A.S. The major asked me to have Asst. Atty. Gen. King ready to go at 9 o'clock, as he would have a plane there. Sill is 100 miles distant.

"At 11:15 King wired that he had reached Wichita Falls before his mother passed away."

ARMY RELIEF SOCIETY HOLDS GARDEN PARTY

Annual Affair Is Staged at Governors Island by Military Service

GEN. BULLARD RECEIVES

THE annual garden party for the benefit of the Army Relief Society was held at Governors Island, N.Y., on June 7 and proved to be one of the most delightful garden parties ever held. Hundreds of people, including many civilians as well as officers of the Army and Navy, visited the Island during the afternoon and remained through the evening to enjoy the many interesting features provided for their entertainment.

The grounds were hung with flags and colored lanterns and attractively decorated booths provided all sorts of refreshments. Among those selling programs were Miss Gloria Swanson and Miss Billie Burke.

The guests were received by Maj. Gen. Robert L. Bullard and his daughter, Miss Rose Bullard, assisted by Col. and Mmes. Peter Murray, William P. Jackson, Frank H. Lawton and Mrs. Henry Stimson.

There was a drill given by the 244th Coast Artillery, N.Y.N.G., at the close of which the regiment presented Gen. Bullard with an American flag. A squadron of airplanes gave an exhibition of maneuvers, including the laying of a smoke barrage, which was one of the most picturesque features of the day. Among the other interesting events were exhibition fencing and boxing bouts by members of the Olympic team, a dress parade of the 244th Regiment, an organ recital at the chapel and a tea-dance at the Officers' Club.

Another enjoyable feature was the "soldier supper," prepared in the rolling kitchens and served under large tents. More than 500 guests were served. During supper a concert was given by the New York Police Glee Club. Following an elaborate display of fireworks in the evening Miss Janet Justice gave an exhibition of classic dancing at the club, after which there was general dancing until midnight.

Great credit is due Mrs. Lawton, president, and Mrs. Ames, secretary and treasurer of the society, for the success of the affair. They were assisted by Maj. Rose and Rudd and by the following committees of women:

Information, Mmes. Jackson and Price; tea booth, Mmes. Faison, Stephenson, Thayer, Gullion, Bailey and Fleming and Miss Howell; supper tent, Mmes. Powell, Newell, Rukke, Eccles, Oakes, Olin, Fleet and Eby; candy, Mmes. Ward, Huguet, Le Gette, Wickham and Moore; dancing, Mmes. Keefer and Higgins; cigarettes, Mmes. Conrad and Davis, assisted by the Misses Conrad, Conface, Eby, Swan, Traub, Jackson and Justice; soft drinks, Mmes. Viles and Hartman, assisted by the Boy Scouts; membership, Mmes. Crystal, Ardrey, Cromwell and Ickes; ice cream, Mmes. Nell Fain Swan and Miss Evans; "hot dogs," Mmes. Needham, Hoffman, Carrico, Heron and Shellhouse.

ALTERATIONS DELAYED ON U.S. BATTLESHIPS

THE passage of a bill, H.R. 8687, authorizing alterations for the battleships New York, Texas, Florida, Utah, Arkansas and Wyoming at a total cost not to exceed $18,360,000 and further authorizing the construction prior to July 1, 1927, of eight scout cruisers to cost $11,100,000 each and six river gunboats to cost $700,000 each, was opposed in the House by Mr. McClintock, Republican, of Oklahoma, who was the only member of the House Naval Committee to oppose the bill.

The feature of the passage of the bill in the House, which passed on May 28, was an attempt by Representative Britten of Illinois, to add on to the bill an amendment authorizing $6,500,000 for the elevation of the guns of certain older battleships of the fleet. Special hearing were held by the Senate Naval Committee by Chairman Hale, and on May 29 the bill was reported favorably to the Senate without amendments.

The bill was passed by the Senate, but its reconsideration was asked by Senator King of Utah. During the closing hours of the Senate it was impossible to again get the bill up for reconsideration. All the preliminary work has been done on the bill, and when Congress convenes in December it will be brought up again, at which time it is expected that the bill will be enacted into law.

NEW ASSISTANT CHIEF BUREAU OF NAVIGATION

DEFINITE announcement was made this week by the Navy Department that Capt. Edward H. Campbell, U.S.N., now on duty at the navy yard, Mare Island, Calif., would succeed Capt. Richard H. Leigh, U.S.N., as Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, effective July 9, 1924. Capt. Leigh will go to the Naval War College, Newport, R.I.

COMPTROLLER RENDERS SHORT ORDER RULING

Longevity Amendment Saved by Made to Order Decision

NOCE CASE YET PENDING

NO effort was made at this session to correct the amendment of the Army and Navy Appropriation bills relative to longevity credit for service at the Military and Naval academies. The members of the Appropriations committees of the Senate and House were thoroughly alarmed by the story which appeared in last week's ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL in which attention was called to the fact that the amendment to the Appropriation bill would be construed as including instructors as well as midshipmen and cadets.

Two or three meetings of the conferees were held and plans were discussed for a joint resolution correcting the apparent error in the amendment. It is understood that one was framed and was to be introduced when, as a last resort, the Comptroller was called in for advice. He very kindly rendered a made-to-order opinion in which he assured the committee that he would construe the amendment as only applying to cadet and midshipmen service. Upon his assurance the conferees on the Army and Navy Appropriation bills decided not to make any effort to bring the amendment up again on the floor of the Senate and the House.

The amendment, however, is not retroactive. It will not take from the cadets and midshipmen the benefits of the Noce decision under the act of 1920 until the Army and Navy bills are signed by the President. The amendment simply deprives the classes which graduated between the passage of the act of 1920 and the Pay act of 1922 future benefits of the Noce decision.

The Government has appealed the Noce case to the Supreme Court, but there is not much doubt that the higher court will sustain the Court of Claims. The passage of the amendments to the Appropriation bills is an acknowledgment by Congress that under the act of 1920 cadets and midshipmen were entitled to credit for longevity pay. The case in the Supreme Court will be prosecuted by Ansell and Bailey without regard to the adoption by Congress of the amendments to the Army and Navy Appropriation bills.

GEN. HART TO MAKE AN INSPECTION TRIP

HART, Q.M.G., left Washington on June 10 for a five weeks' trip throughout the United States to cement more firmly the 8,500 Reserve quartermasters into one homogeneous unit and to make his annual inspection of the Quartermaster activities of the more important Quartermaster depots, which will include Philadelphia, Chicago, San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles, Seattle, Colorado Springs, Omaha, St. Louis, Jeffersonville, Ind., and Columbus, Ohio. The general has accepted the invitation of the Chicago Reserve officers to be their guest of honor on the evening of June 16, on which date quartermasters of the Regulars, National Guard, Reserves and ex-officers all over the world will celebrate the 149th anniversary of the corps.

Gen. Hart will be in Los Angeles June 20, where a celebration will be held in his honor by the Los Angeles sector of the Association of the Army of the United States. A luncheon will be given by the Reserve quartermasters, while in the evening Gen. Hart will address Reserve officers residing in the vicinity of Los Angeles. At all places where Gen. Hart will stop meetings will be held by Reserve quartermasters so that Gen. Hart may address them and meet them personally.

NAT. GUARD STRENGTH SHOWS MARKED INCREASE

OFFICIAL figures prepared in the Militia Bureau, War Department, show that on May 31, 1924, there were 10,416 commissioned officers and 156,582 enlisted men in the National Guard, an aggregate strength of 166,998. This is the highest figure in enrollment reached by the Guard since the reorganization after the World War. Previous to this the figure of 165,807 for September of 1923 was the greatest strength attained since the war. New York heads the list of states in enrollment with a total of 19,445; Pennsylvania, 11,516; Massachusetts, 9,550; Ohio, 8,049; and Illinois, 7,987.

The total aggregate strength for April was 165,180, while that for March was 164,856.

CHEM. WARFARE SERVICE CHLORINE TREATMENTS

MORE than 1,800 citizens suffering from colds have taken advantage of the chlorine gas cure given by the Chemical Warfare Service in the Munitions Building, Washington, D.C., which is under the direction of Col. H. L. Gilchrist, chief of the Medical Research Division, Chemical Warfare Service. Included among the distinguished patients who have taken this treatment are President Coolidge, over a score of Congressmen, Ambassador Warren of Mexico, and others.

Col. Gilchrist has pointed out that the chlorine treatments lasts but one hour, and that the "gas" chamber will accommodate six persons at a time. In commenting upon this remedy Col. Gilchrist said: "Chlorine gas is simply a purifier of the air we breathe, quite similar to purifying the water we drink. If several treatments do not offer relief you have not got a cold. It does not render one immune from subsequent colds. In short, it is a direct application of an antiseptic to an infected area."

CADET NINE CLOSES SEASON WITH VICTORY

West Pointers Slugging in Seventh Clinches Army Victory

TWO CADETS HIT HOMERS

THE Army baseball team closed its season with a victory over the 7th Regiment N.G. team of New York city by a score of 10-8 on Saturday, June 7. The cadets, in their final appearance on the diamond, played an excellent game. The heavy hitting of the West Pointers featured the game.

Cadets Don Storek and Cousland hit home runs. The Army batters got to Stricker, 7th Regiment pitcher, in the first and seventh innings, hammering out eight of their runs in these two frames. The 7th Regiment batsmen reached Cadets Roosma and Stadler, Army pitchers, in the second, sixth, eighth and ninth innings.

The guardsmen's rally in the ninth inning was nipped after they had forced two runs across the plate and just fell short of bringing in the two tying runs. The game was the opening athletic feature of the June Week program at the Point. The score:

Army—Smythe, cf.; Dasher, 1b.; Baird, 1b.; Storek, 3b.; Ellinger, rf.; Browning, 2b.; Cousland, c.; Wood, lf.; Bingham, ss.; Merkle, p.; Tully, p.; Roosma, p.; Stadler, p.

NAVY ATHLETES QUALIFY FOR U.S. OLYMPIC TEAMS

ONE Navy man qualified in the final boxing tryouts which were held for the Olympic games recently. He was J. J. Maddon, Ph.M.Scl. Ens. W. V. O'Regan made such an excellent showing in his preliminary bouts that though he was eliminated in the finals for a place on the team he will be taken over as a reserve boxer. Lt. R. A. Boone, U.S.M.C., Lt. E. W. Schell, U.S.N., and Ens. E. L. Monagan, U.S.N., performed creditably.

Ens. W. S. Kurtz, U.S.S., was unable to compete due to the death of his father. His inability to engage in the tryouts was deeply regretted.

Lt. (j.g.) E. G. Fullinwider qualified for the Olympic fencing team. He is one of the best saber men in the country and represented the United States in the last Olympic games in 1920. He was one of the few American fencers to survive the initial bouts and won a gold medal.

PACIFIC FLEET DECIDES SPRING SPORT FINALS

THE annual track meet of the Battle Fleet was held at the Los Angeles Coliseum Saturday, May 31, 1924. It was won by the U.S.S. Pennsylvania with 33 points, the U.S.S. Tennessee being second with 30 points and the U.S.S. Mississippi third with 16 points. The events were very closely contested and were enjoyed by a large number of officers and men from the fleet.

The pulling race for the Los Angeles Examiner's cup was held on May 30 at San Pedro, Calif. The U.S.S. Mississippi won by a big margin; the U.S.S. Idaho was second and the U.S.S. Tennessee third. This race is for crews made up of men on their first enlistment.

The division championships in baseball for the battleships of the Battle Fleet have been decided. The U.S. California won the 5th Division championship; the U.S.S. Pennsylvania won the 3d Division championship, and the U.S.S. Mississippi won the 4th Division championship. These three ships are now playing for the battleship divisions championship.

The Air squadrons who recently defeated the Destroyer squadrons won two games from the Fleet Base Force, which enables the Air squadrons team to play the champion team of the battleship divisions for the Battle Fleet championship.

NOTICE

THE post baseball team of marine barracks, Parris Island, S.C., is out for the Service championship of the Southeast, and hereby challenges any Service team, including teams of the National Guard within a reasonable distance to a series of baseball games to determine their right to claim the Southeastern Service championship for this year.

RESERVE OFFICERS' ASSN.

THE Bellingham Chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association of the United States was organized on May 13. This includes the neighboring towns in Whatcom county. The president is Maj. I. W. Powell, M.C.O.R.C.; secretary, Capt. C. L. Seifrit, C.A.C.O.R.C. There are about fifty Reserve officers in this district, most of whom have or will join the association.

Lt. Col. R. E. Fisher, Cavalry officer, in charge of the Reserves for the state of Washington, and Lt. Col. Harry Vanderbilt Wurdemann, M.C. Reserve, U.S.A., president of the Reserve Officers' Association, Washington Department, were present at the organization meeting and delivered stirring addresses. Maj. John Lee Holcombe, C.A.C., gave an address on "Grant's Campaign." These officers are doing good work in the state of Washington for the national defense. They appreciate the necessity of intense activity upon the part of the Reserve officers if our citizen Army is to become an effective agency for national defense.

THE 1st District Chapter, Alabama Reserve Officers' Association, headed by its president, Maj. John T. Moore, Inf. O.R.C., held their regular monthly banquet at the Cawthon Hotel Vineyard, Mobile, Ala., on May 21. The principal speaker of the evening was Maj. Gen. William L. Sibert, retired, who spoke on National defense.

Mr. John F. Ahlers of the National Aeronautical Association from Dayton, Ohio gave a most interesting talk. Capt. H. U. Feibelman, J.A.G.O.R.C., was elected president and Lt. T. H. Lining, F.A.O.R.C., secretary-treasurer of the chapter for the coming year.

THE 9th Alabama District Chapter of the Reserve Officers' Association of the United States held its regular monthly meeting on May 29, in the National Guard armory, at Birmingham, Ala. One hundred and ten officers were present, some coming from distant parts of the state.

The principal speaker of the occasion was Lt. Col. Walter H. Johnson, of the General Staff. His address, which was of a confidential nature and dealt with the mobilization plans now being developed by the War Department, was highly interesting and enthusiastically received.

A COMBINED meeting of the National Guard and Reserve officers of Des Moines, Iowa, under the auspices of the Des Moines Chapter of the R.O.A., was held in Des Moines June 4. Interesting speeches were made by Gen. Louis G. Lasher, A.G. of Iowa; Mr. Claude E. Porter, formerly Assistant Attorney General of the United States; Maj. C. S. Bendel, adjutant of the non-divisional group, headquarters 7th Corps Area.

A BIG rally is planned by the Maryland Chapter, Reserve Officers' Association, for June 27 at Bay Shore Park on the Chesapeake. Members and their friends will meet at the shore for a late afternoon swim which will be followed by a Maryland sea food dinner, served in the big casino. There will be swimming, dancing, bowling and every sort of amusement provided by the modern type of summer park.

NAVY CREWS FEEL FIT FOR OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Graduate Crew Shows Great Promise in Preliminary Brushes on Severn

VARSITY BOAT CHANGES

IT has been demonstrated in brushes during the past week that the Naval Academy "grad" crew is considerably faster than the present midshipmen crew, and its improved work is making it, in the opinion of Navy people, a contender for Olympic honors not to be overlooked. Both crews expect to give excellent account of themselves in the Olympic tryouts.

No time results have been announced, but there are reports that recent performances are all that can be asked. These places are definitely settled: Stroke, Frawley; 6, Bolles; 5, Sanborn; 4, Higgins; 3, Harris; 2, Graves (captain). Bow and 7 will be filled from Jacomini, Gallagher, Lee and Walsh, and Clark will be coxswain.

Glendon Jr. used a new combination this afternoon which will probably be the final form of his Naval Academy eight. It follows: Bow, Shieke; 2, Born; 3, W. S. Eddy; 4, D. T. Eddy; 5, Shanklin (captain); 6, Sylvester; 7, Watson; stroke, Bell; coxswain, Gwinn.

The chief uncertainty is in regard to whether Shanklin, the crew captain, can row. He injured his wrist boxing and has not rowed on the varsity this year. If he is unable to row Olsen will take his place. W. S. and D. T. Eddy are brothers and it is the first time in the history of the Academy that brothers have rowed on the same varsity crew.

The shells were sent away Monday and the crews followed on Tuesday. After the race the midshipmen oarsmen will go by the destroyer Sturdevant to the Virginia capes, where they will board the U.S.S. West Virginia. Arriving at Brest, they will join the practice fleet, or, if they should win Saturday, go to Paris for the Olympics. Should the "grad" crew win it will go to Paris by the same route.

SPORT NOTES

THE BATTLE FLEET

Moudy, the California's star pitcher, accomplished a no-hit, no-run game and blanked the Tennessee 12 to 0 on May 24. Moudy was superb—he struck out eleven men and walked two, allowing only one man to reach second. There were only two blows against Moudy that looked even close to hits.

In a hard fought meet on May 31 at San Pedro High School the Tennessee nosed out the New Mexico in the 5th Division eliminations, with the California and Maryland but a few points behind. The rebel team took five firsts—the 100, 220, half-mile, shot and discus. Jordan and Dupree were the big point getters. The official score was: Tennessee, 44; New Mexico, 36; Maryland, 20; California, 17.

men who attended drills under the provisions of these paragraphs and have not received pay. k. To increase the number of non-commissioned officers in the Regular Army. This will make possible the assignment of a larger number of sergeant-instructors to the National Guard.

l. To provide that all persons appointed Reserve officers shall be commissioned in the Army of the United States, and that National Guard officers who are so appointed shall be commissioned for the period during which their Federal recognition continues in effect. This eliminates the five-year reserve commissions now given to National Guard officers.

m. To provide for re-enlistments in the National Guard for periods of one year or three years each, instead of for only one year as now prescribed by law.

n. To authorize the foraging and care at Federal expense of animals owned or hired by a state or National Guard organization, as well as for those Government owned, the total for an organization not to exceed the number authorized by Federal law.

o. To authorize not to exceed five additional caretakers (making the total ten) for heavier-than-air squadrons.

p. To authorize caretakers for armament of coast artillery organizations.

q. To permit one caretaker in each organization to be a civilian when it is not practicable to secure all enlisted caretakers.

r. To eliminate the requirement that an enlisted man must attend sixty per cent. of the drills ordered for his organization to entitle him to armory drill pay. This will permit an enlisted man to receive pay for each drill attended regardless of his percentage of attendance.

s. To authorize an enlisted man to drill with a National Guard organization within the same state at a station other than his own and to receive armory drill pay therefor.

t. To make the right to a rental allowance, instead of the right to quarters in kind, the primary right of officers and warrant officers and to provide that this right to rental allowance shall only be lost to an officer having no dependents, while he is on field or sea duty, and to an officer with or without dependents while he is assigned as quarters at his permanent station the number of rooms provided by law for an officer of his rank or a less number of rooms in any particular case wherein, in the judgment of competent superior authority, a less number of rooms would be adequate for the occupancy of the officer and his dependents. The benefits of this provision will be automatically extended to officers and warrant officers of the National Guard.

u. To provide longevity pay for officers of the National Guard whenever entitled to Federal pay, except armory drill and administrative function pay. This provision is effective from and after July 1, 1922.

v. To provide fifty per cent. increase in pay for officers, warrant officers and enlisted men of the National Guard at drills, field training and service schools, while on duty requiring them to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and for the same traveling expenses authorized for the Regular Army when such flying duty involves travel.

R.O.T.C.

THE field target practice held by the Field Artillery Section of the R.O.T.C. of Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., this season, had seven days of firing. The unit was able to use the beautiful Lake Cayuga for a range, firing at targets anchored in the lake. The last day of practice was on May 19, and was for the War Department Inspection Board.

The R.O.T.C. at Cornell is organized into four batteries, and each battery had two days of firing, except that rain interfered on one day. Shrapnel only was used. There were no accidents of any sort. The students are very enthusiastic over actually firing the guns. Members of the Sophomore class acted as drivers in getting the guns in position, freshmen acted as cannoners, and members of the advanced course conducted the firing. Maj. R. E. Anderson, D.O.L. (F.A.), is in command of the R.O.T.C. at Cornell.

BEFORE a throng of spectators, the annual competitive drill between the Shenandoah Valley Academy and the Handley High School, was held at Winchester, Va., last week. The Shenandoah Valley Academy won the drill by an extremely close margin. The judges, all Regular Army officers and on duty in the office of the Chief of Infantry, were Col. F. W. Rowell, Col. C. A. Trott and Capt. J. W. Leonard.

THE R.O.T.C. unit, Calumet (Mich.) High School completed a very successful three-day camp on May 26, at Camp B.P.O.E., near Calumet.

The camp was visited by the Board of Education and a large number of interested parents and townspeople. The funds for the camp were furnished by Calumet Lodge No. 404, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, hence the name, Camp B.P.O.E.

Camp instruction was conducted by Capt. Rufus S. Ramey, Cav., P.M.S. and T., assisted by Sergt. Anthony J. Forbes, D.E.M.L.

THE growth of the Junior R.O.T.C. units at high schools in the Bay Cities is continuing at a remarkable and highly satisfactory rate. The Oakland units have increased almost 100 per cent. during the past year. San Francisco units have also shown great increases during the same period.

The San Francisco R.O.T.C. was the first junior unit instituted on the Pacific coast. It was founded Feb. 12, 1919, upon the old California High school cadet system, and has grown from a feeble organization in 1919 to one of great strength in numbers and morale. Its greatest increase has been in the past year. At the first competition in 1920 there were 654 cadets, in 1923 there were 1,075, this year there are 1,313, an increase of over twenty-two per cent. in the past twelve months.

PACIFIST PROPAGANDA SLURS SOLDIER NOMINEES AT THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION

THE day before the opening of the Republican Convention at Cleveland and its first day brought up the question to a considerable extent of whether or not the Republican Party for the first time in its existence was going to find a man with every qualification for office unacceptable for no other reason than that he had been a soldier.

The great question of these two days was, who was available for President Coolidge's running mate as Vice President?

Former Governor Lowden, the war executive of Illinois, who undoubtedly controlled the greatest number of delegates, firmly refused to accept the nomination, finally convinced the leaders that he meant what he said.

Generals Dawes, Harbord and Hines, all of whom showed considerable strength, were the next to receive serious consideration.

The pacifists who have for the past few years maintained an only too successful lobby at Washington, of course, had come to Cleveland well prepared to carry on their campaign and determined to exercise their influence, and above all, through the women delegates and women politicians who, like the men, were evident in every gathering.

The same insidious propaganda which has done so much harm the past few years by using the natural desire for peace as a means of bringing about disarmament and above all discrediting the soldier, steadily worked its influence, until, to the surprise of many, not only male delegates but even party leaders were commencing to whisper that a soldier was unavailable because no one wanted a soldier.

That such a phenomena should be observable in the Republican Party, the party of Lincoln, of Grant, five short years after the World War, came as a distinct shock not only to the many delegates from all over the Union, but also to the men who have looked upon the party as standing primarily for the stability of this republic, and its continuance along the path which has made it great, by seeking peaceful development when possible, but never hesitating to choose war with all its horrors rather than to abandon a principle in a cowardly endeavor to escape suffering.

Grant, the great Union general, was the father of modern war in that he initiated the military policy of ruthlessly and unceasingly fighting towards his objective whether defeated or victorious and never ceasing until his enemies' forces had ceased to exist as a military factor.

Yet Grant was the man who said, "Let us have peace," and whose tomb to-day carries this inscription for all to read as his greatest saying.

The Republican Party went to war with Spain to right wrong and remedy a condition at our doors, which had become intolerable in the suffering which it entailed.

Yet after the war what had been taken by force under justifiable provocation was paid for, and not the people of the United States, but the people of Cuba and the Philippine Islands were made the chief beneficiaries.

The veterans of the Civil War were in evidence, those of the Spanish-American War and Philippine Insurrection much more numerous among the delegates and convention officials, while for the first time the veterans of the World War were really numerous among the delegates.

With such a party record, with the men present who helped make it, that such a campaign of cowardice, of disloyalty because making service for one's country and above all on the battlefield a disqualification for office, treason is abetted if not actually urged; should war have reached the point of a whispering campaign shows to what a dangerous point the virus of pacifism has been injected into the political veins of our country.

LEGAL DEPARTMENT

The following responses to inquiries submitted to the Legal Department were made by Ansell and Bailey:

1. An officer of the Army leasing a residence for a year without provision for an earlier termination, who, upon being ordered to duty elsewhere before the expiration of the lease, gave notice to the lessor of such order and surrendered the lease for the remainder of the term, is, nevertheless, liable for the monthly rental for the entire year in the absence of a stipulation to the contrary. It is, however, the duty of the lessor to minimize damages by making a reasonable effort to lease the premises to another and thus reduce by the amount of any rent so received the liability of the officer, who himself may likewise, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, endeavor to procure a tenant.

2. The Constitution recognizes two classes of officers of the United States—(1) those appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and (2) those "inferior" officers whose appointment Congress may by law vest in the President alone, or in the courts, or in the heads of departments, all officers belonging to the first class except where the appointment is otherwise provided for in the Constitution itself or by the laws of Congress. "Inferior" in this sense means not unimportant but only subordinate to those in whom the power of appointment may be vested. Officers of the Regular Army belong to the first class, but the appointment of some officers of the military establishment in time of war, not of the highest rank, has sometimes been vested by Congress in the President alone, the officers thus appointed being inferior officers in the Constitutional sense.

3. It can be generally stated that an active member of the Regular military establishment, though not taxable by a state in his military capacity as for his pay, arms, uniforms or other property necessary in and pertaining to his military status, is not immune from state taxation (when not stationed at a place where the United States has exclusive jurisdiction) upon property belonging and incident to his personal capacity.

4. The only redress that a member of the Regular military establishment has against a civilian purchaser of an automobile who fails to pay the purchase price in accordance with the terms of the agreement of sale is that possessed by all persons, namely, a private action brought in the proper local court for the breach of the contract; and the fact that the machine was owned by a member of the military establishment and was sometimes conveniently used for the furtherance of military duties does not alter the situation.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL

RECENT DECISIONS

The mere assignment to temporary duty gives an officer no right to the rental allowance, the payment of the rental allowance while detailed to temporary duty being conditioned upon the fact that no public quarters are available at either the permanent or temporary stations. (Court's case, May 26, 1924.)

An enlisted man in the Navy is entitled to refund of the amount forfeited by summary court-martial sentence, subject to being remitted under Art. 1877, Navy Regulations, where it appears that the Secretary of the Navy set aside the proceedings and findings, and the claimant was subsequently given an honorable discharge. (Dwyer's case, May 24, 1924.)

A military attaché at Teheran, Persia, is not entitled to the sum lost by exchange incurred in cashing checks drawn on the Treasury of the United States in payment of his salary and allowances. When an officer, whose salary is payable in dollars, has received and cashed a check drawn on the Treasury for the amount due him in dollars he has been paid in full, and the Government is not concerned with the amount of foreign money received in exchange for such checks. (Jedlicka's case, May 20, 1924.)

No contract of enlistment exists that would entitle an enlisted man in the Navy to pay and allowances while being retained in the Navy awaiting a nominal discharge therefrom, where it appears that he enlisted March 3, 1919, and remained in desertion until Dec. 8, 1923, when he surrendered himself to the naval authorities, it appearing also that his contract of enlistment was due to expire Nov. 27, 1921. (Nave's case, May 20, 1924.)

VOICE OF THE SERVICES

RESERVE OFFICERS IN THE BACKGROUND

TO THE EDITOR:

AS a Reserve officer of some seven years it has often occurred to me when reading of parades such as Decoration Day, Armistice Day and other military formations that one never sees the Reserve officer mentioned in the organizations taking part. The Army and Navy, the National Guard and semi-military organizations all seem to have their place in the minds of the public.

The National Defense act and the War Department tell us that the Reserve Corps is one of the, if not the, principal components of the Army and makes a great deal of comment on the Reserve Corps and the qualifications of and integrity of the men who have commissions in same. Our commission from the President says that his having confidence in the honesty, integrity and patriotism of so and so he is hereby appointed so and so.

Be that as it may, and as it is, I think that I am expressing the feelings of many officers, although they do not say so, that they are doing what they feel to be the right thing in being in the Reserves and in going to camp each year if allowed to by Congress, yet they are absolutely ignored as far as any recognition being shown them as officers of the Army of the United States. When one sits down and thinks the matter over there is very little to look forward to for the Reserve officer unless some national emergency should occur, yet he is and keeps investing his money for the upkeep of his position with never a chance to air his equipment, officially, to warrant his feeling that the money he has invested in uniforms, etc., has been well spent. For seven years I have kept this equipment up to the regulations and have yet never been officially called upon to wear same, except during the period of the World War, coming out of the Regular Army and returning to the Reserves. This has been the lot of the average officer, yet he keeps on replenishing, as do the officers in the Regular Establishment, who are receiving a salary partly for that purpose.

It would seem to me that should the chiefs of staff of the different divisions throughout the country arrange that when any public military parades are to take place, like Decoration Day and Armistice Day, that he organize and invite all Reserve officers in certain cities to turn out in full uniform and have a place in line of escort just as the Regulars, National Guard and Navy do, for if we are part of them we are entitled to this position with the Army on public occasions so that our country may know that there are officers which are a branch of the Army ready to do their duty at any time. We don't need any pay to turn out with our brother officers in the Regular Army for parades. Most of us would consider it a privilege and a compliment to the Reserve officer, and any one who is not proud to be a Reserve officer let him stay home, as this is where he probably would be any way, unless Uncle Sam had authority over him. There are very few Reserve officers who belong to the Guard, etc., compared with the 70,000 who have commissions. Again we hear plenty about the R.O.T.C. and the C.M.T.C., but practically nothing about those who Uncle Sam has practically ready to take up arms.

SERVICE PUBLICATIONS

THE LUCKY BAG OF THE U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY. 1924 edition. Published by the Class of 1924, U.S.N.A., at Annapolis, Md., and printed by the Du Bois Press, Rochester, N.Y.

The Naval Academy annual is up to the standard of its predecessors, which were hailed as the finest college annuals in the country. The cover is simple and dignified, the class crest of 1924 featuring in the cover design. The contents are markedly good and the makeup is excellent.

The book is dedicated to the Mothers of the Class of 1924. The dedication is unique, as it has been customary to honor some officer each year. However, as the preceding Lucky Bags were dedicated to Rear Adm. Henry B. Wilson, U.S.N., Superintendent, and other officers, the graduating class chose to set apart its year book to the one who molded their lives.

The pages reflect the strong spirit of co-operation between the midshipmen and authorities, established since the advent of Rear Adm. Wilson to the Superintendency and Capt. Thomas R. Kurtz, now relieved, as Commandant of Midshipmen.

Among the nationally famous artists whose work graced the pages of this year's edition were Lt. Comdr. Henry Reuterdahl, Miss Pearl L. Hill, Messrs. Thomas H. Webb, J. C. Leyendecker and John Held, jr. Miss Neysa McMein, world famous woman artist, granted permission for a reproduction of one of her works. The original sketches and cartoons of Mdsn. W. C. Eddy, Class of 1926, are worthy of mention.

Lt. R. E. Keating, Lucky Bag advisor, receives a high tribute from the staff which produced the annual, and the book itself is a concrete evidence of his sympathy with the best traditions of the regiment.

The body of the book is composed of photographs and biographies of the members of the graduating class, the organization of the Regiment of Midshipmen, pictures and descriptions of the cruises made by the upper classmen, write-ups and photographs of the various Academy administrative and student departments and accounts of the various midshipmen activities.

The "Unlucky Bag," a parody on the annual within the year book, and a Log Log, burlesque publication of the Academy weekly, are bright spots in an excellent humor section. Photographs and the accomplishments of the athletic teams make up the balance of the book.

The Lucky Bag was prepared under direction of Mdsn. W. P. Cochran, assisted by Mdsn. A. M. Hurst, S. G. Kelly, G. D. Kissam, F. J. Bell, H. Armor, T. D. Napier, E. B. Dascomb, W. H. Brereton, B. L. Austin and J. T. Hogg.

The business staff was headed by Mdsn. P. W. Siegrist, assisted by Mdsn. T. H. Dyer, C. E. Beatty, E. A. Cunningham, F. R. Furth, H. C. Drexler, A. J. Freels, J. K. Hyatt, W. P. Tammany, G. F. Howland and A. P. Calvert.

Principles of Evacuation, by Lt. Col. T. L. Rhoads, Med. Corps, U.S.A., which was published in The Military Surgeon, 1924, Vol. LIV, has been reprinted in pamphlet form by the Association of Military Surgeons. Chapter I deals with the Comprehensive Plan, II with Division Evacuation, III, Army Corps and Army Evacuation, and IV with Communication Zone Evacuation. The pamphlet is one of 120 pages.

STATUS OF SERVICE LEGISLATION

CONGRESS adjourned for the first session of the 68th Congress with a mass of important Service legislation pending in the Military and Naval committees. Two important bills came out of the Military Committee and passed this session. The most important for the Army was the amendment to the National Defense act containing, among other things, an increase in the number of non-commissioned officers of the Regular Army. Another bill was the amendment to the Joint Service Pay act which affects all of the Services, but was handled by the Military Committee.

Just before the adjournment the House adopted the Army appropriations conference report with a provision asking the War Department to submit a comprehensive building program for quarters for the Regular Army.

The Senate accepted the report without amendment on June 5 and the bill went to the President for his signature on June 6. The matter of quarters was the subject of conference between the members of the Joint Conference Committee and the Secretary of War and an agreement was reached by which the War Department will be authorized to sell real estate which is of no military value and expend the funds on the $40,000,000 construction program for the Army.

Mr. Anthony, who proposed the amendment, expressed himself as favoring regimental posts as the smallest unit under the new program.

No personnel legislation was passed at this session for the Navy or Marine Corps. Neither the Senate nor the House Naval committees made a favorable report on any general personnel legislation for the Navy, except the Naval Omnibus bill, which was passed by the House at the last session of a former Congress. As far as the status of the omnibus personnel legislation is concerned, the Navy has not advanced during this Congress.

MADDEN PROPOSES COMPROMISE

SUCH a withering fire was directed at the Madden bill enlarging the authority of the Comptroller General and so much support was given the Dallinger bill, which provides for review by the Department of Justice of the Comptroller General's decisions, that the chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee has proposed a compromise. He would create a board of review for the Comptroller's decisions when they are questioned by the heads of the departments. This board will consist of three members with the salary of $10,000 a year. Evidently Chairman Madden desires to create another commission in the Executive Department, and one that would have authority over all the departments.

One of the strongest attacks on the provisions of the Budget act which creates the Comptroller General came from the Department of Justice. The Department of Justice submitted a carefully prepared brief on the entire question which so impressed the committee that it became apparent that either the Dallinger bill or some bill of that character will be reported out at the beginning of next session. Its passage will be assured, as there is scarcely a Senator or Member who has not a grievance against the Comptroller General. The effect of Mr. Madden's proposal for a compromise was to keep the Dallinger bill in the committee for this session. Early next session the committee will take up the subject again, as by that time it is assumed that Chairman Madden will introduce a bill containing his proposition for a compromise.

An eleventh hour effort to secure a favorable report from the House Committee on Naval Affairs on the bill (H.R. 9069) for the equalization of promotion between the line and staff failed on June 6 on account of the lack of a quorum in the committee when it came up for action. A majority of the members present favored the bill, but as it had been revised just previous to its consideration on the day before Congress adjourned, the members present did not feel like assuming the responsibility for reporting out such an important measure.

An agreement, however, was reached by which the bill will be taken up by the committee in the first Tuesday in December, when Congress convenes.

It should be borne in mind that the subjoined list of bills printed will be alive until this Congress adjourns.

MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS ASSOCIATION

AS of June 7 5th Corps Area headquarters had received 4,589 applications for the citizens' military training camp which will be held at Camp Knox, Ky., from July 2 to July 31. This corps area is authorized 5,300, which makes a percentage of 86.2. These applications are divided among the four states comprising the 5th Corps Area as follows: Ohio, 1,910; Indiana, 779; West Virginia, 1,287; and Kentucky, 613. According to the rate at which the applications have been coming in at Fort Hayes, Ohio, the quota for the 5th Corps Area will be filled shortly.

PROMOTIONS AND RETIREMENTS

MAJ. GEN. JOSEPH H. PENDLETON, U.S.M.C., who was retired from active service for age June 2, 1924, was last on duty at San Diego, Calif., in command of the 5th Brigade of Marines. He was born in Pennsylvania, June 2, 1860, and was graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1878, and was appointed a cadet engineer. He was appointed a second lieutenant, U.S.M.C., July 1, 1884. He is known throughout the Service and to many citizens in Southern California as "Uncle Joe." Gen. Pendleton has a record of eighteen years and five months foreign, expeditionary and sea service and over twenty years' service within the limits of the United States. He has served on nine expeditions and campaigns, including the Spanish-American War, the Philippines, Panama, Nicaragua and Santo Domingo. He distinguished himself as commander of the Marine force which operated in Nicaragua in 1912 and restored order on behalf of the government of President Zamorra, dispersing the forces of the revolution at the battle of Coyotepe Hill, in which the Marines captured a Nicaraguan stronghold. Gen. Pendleton also distinguished himself as the leader of the Marine brigade which accomplished the pacification of Santo Domingo after a strenuous campaign in 1915. In 1917 he was military governor of Santo Domingo and acquitted himself with distinction. Gen. Pendleton has served much of the time which he spent in the United States at San Diego, Calif., and is regarded as one of the founders of the modern city at that place.

THE following officers of the Navy became eligible for promotion on June 5, 1922, except where otherwise noted:

Lt. Walter E. Doyle to lieutenant commander from May 25, 1924, vice H. W. Hosford (died).

Get the Proper Viewpoint!

No. 35

Many people think thrift merely implies a self-imposed system of self-discipline, self-denial, and of "doing without". They see no immediate results, and therefore readily dismiss the subject with an easy: "What's the use?"

The best answer to such an idea is found in the living examples of people who have practiced thrift regularly. They seem to have found more joy in life and living. They have practiced some restraint and self-discipline but it has made them of a finer temper for the battle of life. And last but not least, they have accumulated enough of this world's goods to enable them to live contentedly and happily.

Thrift is not giving up what we want. Instead, it is the best means of obtaining what we want—when we want it! Think it over! It entails a question of the right perspective and the proper viewpoint. With that idea in our minds, we will find it easier to practice thrift and reap its many benefits. The time to start is NOW!

APPOINTMENT, BY TRANSFER, IN THE REGULAR ARMY.

AIR SERVICE.
Capt. Ivan Benson Snell, Inf. (detailed in Air Service), with rank from July 1, 1920.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR CHAPLAINS

OFFICE CIR. 87, C. OF C., JUNE 7, 1924.
During the past week, under authorization of the Secretary of War, a codification of the regulations pertaining to chaplains has been published. It is a pamphlet, A.R. 60-5, which again indicates the earnest desire and intention to provide as adequately as may be possible for the moral and religious life of the military personnel, at home and abroad under all circumstances.

Salient features of the new regulations are the freeing of chaplains from many burdensome extra-professional duties which at times have been assigned to them. They are no longer available for such services as post exchange officers or as counsel for the defense in courts-martial. The chaplain is given a definite place on the staff of the commanding officer, upon whom rests the ultimate responsibility for matters of a religious and moral nature within a command as completely as does the responsibility for strictly military matters.

Authority is given for the enlistment of the active aid of civilian assistants, both lay and clerical, and provision is made for the use of certain non-appropriated local funds to employ supply clergymen when chaplains are not available.

Chaplains are directed to "serve as friends, counselors and guides, without discrimination, to all members of the command to which they are assigned, regardless of creed or sect." Their duties have been broadly defined as being "closely analogous to those performed by clergymen in civilian life, modified only by the peculiar conditions attaching to military life and especially by the necessity that each chaplain shall, so far as practicable, serve the moral and religious needs of the entire personnel of the command to which he is assigned, either through his own personal services or through the co-operative efforts of others."

Transport chaplains are to accompany all large contingents of troops moving to or from duty outside the continental limits of the United States.

An orderly observance of the Sabbath by the officers and men in the military service is enjoined. Military duty and labor on Sunday are reduced to the measure of strict necessity, and such activities as may be held on Sunday are so scheduled as not to interfere with attendance upon public services of worship.

JOHN T. AXTON,
Chief of Chaplains.

Secretary of War John W. Weeks made an address before the National Association of Real Estate Boards June 5, his subject being loyalty and patriotism. Mr. Weeks also spoke on June 6 at the graduating exercises of the Army Medical Center, Washington. Mr. Weeks said in part: "No history of modern civilization can be written without reference to war. No survey of modern life can be complete without taking into account the existence of military organization. Of such an organization you form a part, pledged to the protection of the nation and the people of the nation. You give the Army medical aid and attention, you administer for the Army the sanitary rules, you provide for the Army the preventive and curative measures in the same spirit as your medical colleagues work for the benefit of the civil population. You have a high calling. You have great prospects of useful service in the future. You have received special training for your work and have successfully completed an arduous course of study. I congratulate you upon your graduation and wish you many years of agreeable work in the Army of the United States."

The personnel of the Quartermaster Supply Office, Washington, D.C., in appreciation of their high regards for their commanding officer, Col. Henry C. Supply Depot assembled. In the presence of Col. Bonnycastle and their two daughters, Harriet and Marie, Lt. W. E. Cashman, Q.M.C., in a very neat speech paid tribute to the high esteem in which Col. Bonnycastle was held by all unnerred with the Quartermaster Supply Depot, and then asked Mrs. Bonnycastle to accept as a token of what they thought of her husband a beautiful and costly silver set. Mrs. Bonnycastle very fittingly replied. Concluding her remarks by saying how sorry they were to leave Washington, but at their new station the beautiful silver service would always be a pleasant reminder of those whom they left behind them in Washington and who helped to make Col. Bonnycastle's tour such a pleasant remembrance. Col. and Mrs. Bonnycastle and their three daughters leave Washington for their new station at the Philadelphia Quartermaster depot after July 1.

U.S. Coast Guard, retired, to accept a sword tendered to him by the King of Great Britain through the Department of State. The occasion for this legislation is an incident which occurred in 1902 when Comdr. Tozier was ordered by the department to conduct a search off the coast of Vancouver Island in connection with the reported loss of the British cruiser Condor. As the result of the search made by Comdr. Tozier it was determined that the vessel had foundered with all members of her crew.
A quarter boat from the cruiser was found on the shore of Vancouver Island, but an Indian chief, who claimed possession of all property found on the shore of that particular reservation, declined to permit the removal of the boat and was only induced to do so in exchange for the dress sword of Comdr. Tozier. The quarter boat was turned over to the British authorities with a full report by Comdr. Tozier covering his search and investigations, and the sword was then tendered him by the British government in appreciation of the valuable assistance he had rendered.

MOTHER GOOSE UP TO DATE

Major Moss, a little man a little car did buy.
For knocking and backfiring
None could come her nigh.
She could stop, slow and idle,
She could speed near and far,
But one night she disappeared.
So Moss lost his car.

When Moss got up next morning
She was not in her stall;
Ten miles from home he found her
Dead, up against a wall.
In a ditch he found her,
All crumpled up and stripped.
To call the best repair man
To the nearest phone he tripped.
So Moss found his car.

"Send right away your wrecking car;
My bus is in the ditch."
The wrecker came without delay
And to the car did hitch
And towed her to the garage where
We later paid for her repair.
So Moss got his car.

THE FINANCIAL DIGEST

This paper will be glad to furnish to its readers information on any brokerage house. A letter addressed to the Army and Navy Journal, 354 Fourth avenue, New York city, will bring the information desired.

The statements made herein are based upon information and statistics which we consider reliable. But as not made upon our personal knowledge we do not guarantee their correctness.

By Raymond V. Sykes

For the convenience of those who may require them, a list of desirable short-term securities is given in the accompanying table. There is nothing in the outlook, that is to say, there is no indication of higher money rates that would recommend a general switch from permanent investment securities into bonds and notes having a near maturity, but there are always individual circumstances that make such issues desirable.

The purchase of short-term securities insures capital almost as liquid as though the money were deposited in a bank, but the return to be procured is substantially higher than generally paid on bank balances. For example, anyone contemplating the purchase of stocks in the autumn, rather than carrying them through a conjectural market during the coming Presidential campaign, would find it profitable to purchase some of the short-term issues suggested, instead of simply leaving the funds on deposit in a bank. Securities have been chosen that show a yield of at least 4½ per cent., and many of them return a higher rate. The writer will be glad to inform by letter the location of the best market.

The Columbia Gas and Electric Company one-year 5 per cent. notes, due March 1, 1925, are outstanding to the amount of $11,500,000. The notes were issued in March of this year in connection with the acquisition of practically all the capital stock of the Columbus Gas and Fuel Company, the Federal Gas and Fuel Company, the Springfield Gas Company and the Dayton Gas Company from the Pure Oil Company. The lowest denomination is $1,000. The notes are redeemable at any time on fifteen days' notice at 100 and interest. The Columbia Gas is making a very successful record of earning power, last year covering its entire interest charges 8.37 times over.

The Government of Switzerland external 5 per cent. gold notes are outstanding to the amount of $20,000,000. The notes are due Aug. 1, 1926, but are redeemable as a whole at 100 and accrued interest, at the option of the Swiss Government on Aug. 1, 1925, or Feb. 1, 1926, on three months' notice. Both principal and interest are payable in United States gold coin in New York city at the office of J. P. Morgan and Company, without deduction for any Swiss taxes whatever. The lowest denomination is $1,000.

The Rocking Valley Railway two-year 5 per cent. notes, due March 1, 1926, are outstanding in the amount of $6,000,000. These notes were sold in February of this year and were issued to replace $7,500,000 of 6 per cent. notes maturing March 1, 1924. All Hocking Valley senior issues are entitled to a high investment rating.

The Kansas City Terminal Railway three-year 5½ per cent. notes, due Nov. 15, 1926, are outstanding in the amount of $10,000,000. The notes are secured by deposit of $13,783,000 of the company's first mortgage 4s, due in 1960, and a direct obligation of the company, owned jointly by several roads, among which are the Atchison, Burlington and Union Pacific. These three companies have covenanted to pay an equal amount of the principal and interest of the bonds and also their proportional share of total expenses of operation and maintenance.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway debenture gold 4s, due Sept. 1, 1928, are outstanding in the amount of $50,000,000. The lowest denomination is $1,000. This bond issue has been assumed by the New York Central Railroad. It is secured equally with $50,000,000 Lake Shore 4s of 1931, being a second lien on 963.77 miles and a third lien on 36.54 miles. The bonds underlie several New York Central issues. The bonds are legal investments for savings banks in twelve states, including New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad first refunding series "C" 5s, due Aug. 1, 1926, are outstanding to the amount of $9,044,000. This issue is part of a series of three, known respectively as "A," "C" and "D," the total of which is approximately $57,000,000. The bonds are secured by a first lien on 1,439.03 miles, and a direct lien on securities having a par value of $83,276,013, and on other collateral. The bonds underlie $51,350,000 of Missouri Pacific General 4s, 1975. They are legal for savings banks in New Hampshire and Oregon. The lowest denomination is $500.

NAVY NOTES

THE total enlisted strength of the Navy on June 5 was 86,504 or an excess of 504 over the authorized figure. Since July 1, 1923, the Department has obtained 23,054 first enlistments, but after deducting 635 due to underage and physical disability discharges, the net first enlistments numbered 22,419. For the week ending June 5, the Navy Department obtained 357 first enlistments, 68 re-enlistments, or a grand total of 425. The percentage of the first five stations is as follows: Detroit, 1,571; Baltimore, 1,538; Minneapolis, 1,429; Kansas City, 1,250, and New Orleans, 1,167.

SOUNDINGS of fifteen to eighty fathoms were obtained by a merchant vessel in latitude 28° 20' North, longitude 115° 50', approximate or about twelve miles to the westward of San Benito Islands. The Hydrographic Office desires to have naval vessels passing to the westward of San Benito Islands take soundings for the purpose of developing any shoal area that may exist in this locality.

UNDER a recent decision by the Comptroller General, instructions have been issued for the payment of retainer pay to members of the Naval Reserve Force throughout the first, second and third enrolment years, at the expiration of each enrolment quarter, when he has attended the pro rata number of drills or performed equivalent duty. However, no payment will be made for the last enrolment year, unless in addition to having attended the pro rata drills, the reservist has also performed at least sixty days' active service during the current enrolment. As it now stands, a reservist must perform two months' active service during each enrolment regardless of what classes he may have been assigned to during such enrolment.

THE launching of the French cruiser Primauguet at Brest a few days ago, says the Army and Navy and Air Force Gazette of London of May 31, brings back a fine old name into the list of the French navy. It was in the last of King Henry VIII's wars with France, which began in 1511, that a fleet was collected at Brest under an officer of this name, and in 1512 this force encountered the English fleet which had put to sea from Portsmouth, after King Henry had reviewed on the Downs the soldiers who formed the larger part of the crews. In the ensuing fight the Cordelier, the flagship of Primauguet, and the English ship Regent, fell aboard one another, caught fire, and perished with all hands. The terrible circumstances of the loss of these two ships, says Mr. David Hannay in his "Short History of the Navy," produced a profound impression. In ensuing years there was a marked disinclination among French and English to come too close. The Primauguet is an 8,000-ton ship, but the Cassard, of 10,000 tons, is being begun on the slip she has vacated.

ON May 30 the officers of the Aircraft Squadrons, Battle Fleet, gave a farewell party to Capt. A. W. Marshall at the Coronado Country Club. This party was also to welcome Capt. S. E. Moses to the Battle Fleet. Practically all the officers attached to the Aircraft Squadrons with their families were present.

ON June 6 the crew of the U.S.S. California gave a ball at the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, in honor of Capt. Christy, Comdr. Menner and other officers soon to be detached from the California.

ON June 21 Adm. Robison will entertain at an afternoon reception on the U.S.S. California at San Pedro for Mayor Cryer of Los Angeles; Mayor Buffam of Long Beach, and a large number of guests from the vicinity of these cities. This reception will be held to express the appreciation of the fleet for the hospitality shown the officers and men of the fleet.

CAPT. W. N. BEST, U.S.M.C., assistant detail officer, U.S.M.C., will stand relieved from his present duties on June 17, when he will proceed on the Henderson for duty with the Haiti Gendarmerie. He will be relieved by Capt. Oliver P. Smith, U.S.M.C., who has been assigned to duty on the U.S.S. Texas.

NOTED SPEAKERS TALK ON RUHR

Miss Evelyn Gannant Smalley spoke on "The Conditions in France and the Ruhr" at the Army and Navy Club, 112 Central Park South on Wednesday, June 11, under the auspices of the organization. Miss Smalley has been attached to the military forces of the Allies since 1917 and her present post at Paris is under Gen. Gouraud, military governor of that city.

BOSTON ARTILLERY CO. CELEBRATES
286TH ANNIVERSARY

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston celebrated its 286th anniversary with a parade and banquet on June 2, 1924. The company made an inspiring showing in its exercises all day, from the time of the decoration of the tomb of its first commander, Robert Keayne, in King's Chapel burying ground, until after its drum-head election on the Common. The parade through Boston streets was witnessed by throngs. Following the tomb decoration, the company formed in Faneuil Hall and, under command of Capt. William X. McKenna, covered the customary route to the State House. There Governor Cox, a comrade of the company, with Adj. Gen. Jesse F. Stevens and members of the Governor's staff and many prominent invited guests, joined the column. Then the parade was resumed to the New Old South Church.

Lt. Col. Henry D. Cormerais who was elected commander 1924-25, is one of the best known military men in the state and at present is state inspector, Inspector General's Department, Massachusetts National Guard. He enlisted in the Guard in the 5th Infantry in 1896, holding various positions until, in 1915, he was elected captain, Co. C, 5th Inf. He served on the Mexican border, and in 1917 went into Federal service. Transferred to the 101st Infantry, he sailed with that regiment for France in September, 1917. He was in command of Headquarters Co. until June 16, when he was wounded in action, resulting in partial loss of his right hand, part of his right arm and severe injuries to his right side. Being discharged from the Federal service he was appointed captain in the provisional Massachusetts Guard and in 1920 was appointed major, Q.M.C., later transferred to Infantry and appointed executive officer, 51st Infantry Brigade. He is entitled to compensation on account of disability from wounds, but declined to accept it.

M.O.W.W.

Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, O.R.C., chairman of the executive committee for the coming National Convention at Boston, and Lt. Col. Carroll J. Swan, O.R.C., are engaged in making detailed plans for the coming assembly. Governor Cox of Massachusetts and Mayor Curley of Boston have extended warm invitations to the members of the order and promised hearty welcomes to the delegates. Rear Adm. L. R. de Steiguer, U.S.N., commandant of the Boston Navy Yard, has also evidenced a great interest in preparing for Convention visitors.

The arrangements for the Convention, of which Lt. Col. Swan is in charge, provide that the committee take a regimental formation, divided into battalions and companies, with specific duties. Provisions have been made to hold a big "Army Day" and "Navy Day" and banquet. The Convention week promises to be well taken up by functions showing the hospitality of the Boston members of the order.

The Boston Chapter, which is arranging to act as host to fellow convention members in October, held its annual "Pop" concert on Tuesday evening in Boston's Symphony Hall. The music was furnished by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Agide Jaccchia, and was featured by martial selections.

Cowie, U.S.N., vice commander-in-chief of the order, is leading a membership campaign to secure "100,000 members before 1930," and will soon actively carry on a Massachusetts state drive to double the order's membership in 1924. He is being supported by the active aid of all members of the order.

WEST POINT GRADUATES HOLD
REUNION IN CHINA

Those graduates of the U.S. Military Academy now in China assembled at the Astor House Hotel in Tientsin on May 10 for the first reunion dinner ever held in China. It is claimed, subject to challenge, that this dinner has the distinction of being held at a greater geographical distance from West Point than any other; in spirit, however, every "grad" was back again, across 10,000 miles of space, thrilled by the stirring words of "The Corps," living over in memories the days spent at his loved Alma Mater.

For the night kaydet nicknames governed, skins were "b-ached," unsuccessfully of course, and "grads" of twenty-seven years' service and two vied with one another in putting volume into the chorus of "Tipperary" and "The Army Team" as though firmly convinced that on their individual vocal efforts depended victory over the Navy. A brigadier general in the Chinese army "changed posts" with a junior second lieutenant at command of a "yearling corps," and the total of penalties for hazing that could be inflicted would stagger the Corps and justify at least one Congressional investigation.

Great interest was added by the presence of two Chinese graduates—Brig. Gen. Keng Wang and Maj. Feng Tse Wang, both of whom now hold important positions in the Chinese army. Talks were made by Gen. Ken Wang, Maj. Wang, and by Brig. Gen. William D. Connor and 2d Lt. Paul C. Kelly, the latter two being the oldest and youngest graduates present. The entertainment features were in charge of Lt. P. Gallagher, cheer leader in his day and an ex-Hundredth Night star. Thirteen classes were represented as follows: 1897, William D. Connor; 1901, Joseph F. Barnes; 1909, Edwin E. Harding; 1913, Dennis E. McCuniff; 1914, Walter C. Gullion; 1915, J. J. Gerhardt and H. H. Dabney; 1916, John D. Miley; 1917, M. G. Armstrong, Francis O. Macon and H. L. Milan; 1918, George F. Herbert; 1919, P. E. Gallagher and Ken Wang; 1920, F. B. Butler; 1921, Carl Robinson, E. M. Brannon, D. L. Adams and E. H. Snodgrass; 1922, H. W. Lystad, Paul C. Kelly, W. E. Crist and Feng Tse Wang.

In the Boxer Rebellion

As the Ninth United States Infantry attacked Tien-tsin on the right of the Allies' line, Colonel Emerson H. Liscum seized the flag from the hands of his wounded color bearer, and, as he waved it over his head to encourage his men, he fell mortally wounded. But Major Jesse M. Lee took his place, carried the position and held it for fifteen hours in the face of a withering fire.
